

CFR Warns Of False Flag Attack To Ignite Iran War

Echoing Brzezinski’s veiled threat, but absurdly pins potential blame on “Al-Qaeda”

Prison Planet | May 2, 2007
Paul Joseph Watson

The CFR has echoed the warning of Zbigniew Brzezinski in claiming that a possible false flag terror attack blamed on Iran could be used to ignite a war, but absurdly pins the potential blame on “Al-Qaeda” and not the most likely perpetrators - the military-industrial complex that owns and controls the United States government.

The CFR along with the Trilateral Commission hold the real strings of power in the United States and act on policy decided upon by the big brother of multinational semi-secret steering societies, the Bilderberg Group.

In an article for the May/June issue of the Council on Foreign Relations’ Foreign Affairs periodical entitled Al Qaeda Strikes Back, CFR member and 29-year CIA operative Bruce Riedel writes, embarrassed “The biggest danger is that al Qaeda will deliberately provoke a war with a “false-flag” operation, say, a terrorist attack carried out in a way that would make it appear as though it were Iran’s doing. The United States should be extremely wary of such deception. In the event of an attack, accurately assigning blame will require very careful intelligence work. It may require months, or even years, of patient investigating to identify the plotters behind well-planned and well-executed operations, as it did for the 1988 bombing of Pan Am flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, and the 1996 attacks on the U.S. barracks at the Khobar Towers in Saudi Arabia. Presidents George H. W. Bush and Bill Clinton were wise to be patient in both those cases; Washington would be well advised to do the same in the event of a similar attack in the future. In the meantime, it should, of course, continue to do its utmost to prevent Iran from acquiring nuclear weapons and from fomenting violence and terrorism in the Middle East by using tough diplomacy and targeted sanctions. And it should not consider a military operation against Iran, as doing so would only strengthen al Qaeda’s hand -- much as the U.S. invasion and occupation of Iraq have.”

Any debate as to who the perpetrators of the attack will be is moot, because

Dick Cheney’s USSTRATCOM contingency plan calls for attacking Iran in the immediate aftermath of a ‘second 9/11’ - no matter who is behind it - which of course is going to be the cabal Dick Cheney fronts for itself and the same pack of murderers that are actively seeking to initiate global ethnic cleansing and genocide to bring about world war three.

There will be no “careful intelligence work” to determine the perpetrators of the attack, because the official story will be pre-packaged and disseminated in the hours after the event as it was on 9/11, with patsies perfectly framed and military strike plans readied.

Since there is no actual organization called Al-Qaeda - the name was invented by the U.S. government in January 2001 to enable Bin Laden to be prosecuted in his absence - who has the motive for launching an attack that would justify the immediate employment of war plans that were finalized months ago?

In February, former National Security Advisor and founding member of the Trilateral Commission Zbigniew Brzezinski tacitly warned a Senate Foreign Relations Committee that an attack on Iran could be launched following a staged provocation in Iraq or a false flag terror attack within the U.S.

Brzezinski alluded to the potential for the Bush administration to manufacture a false flag Gulf of Tonkin type incident in describing a “plausible scenario for a military collision with Iran,” which would revolve around “some provocation in Iraq or a terrorist act in the US blamed on Iran, culminating in a ‘defensive’ US military action against Iran that plunges a lonely America into a spreading and deepening quagmire eventually ranging across Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan and Pakistan.”

Freemasons and Government Building Symbols - Part 1

Initial Contribution by Merri Flores

Kissimmee, Florida: We’ve all seen the countless reports and books on how the world and nations are under the thumb of the Highest order of the Freemasons. It would then come as no surprise to know that the trickle to local government is alive and well. The City of Kissimmee and Osceola County, which is the home of the famous Walt Disney World and many other entertainment parks and facilities, have recently built three multi-million dollar administrative and court buildings. Guess who got to adorn the new buildings with dedication plaques? It wasn’t the local chapter of the YMCA nor the Boy Scouts of America. You guessed it; it was the Freemasons.

The large, white plaque is proudly cemented at the entrances of each of the three buildings from the “Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Free and Accepted Masons of Florida.” The question begs to be asked if all of the commissioners who voted to install these plaques on the buildings are members of the Freemasons and what exactly did they receive from the Freemasons in exchange for this?

This isn’t the first time that the question of this particular religious type of organization has placed permanent plaques on public buildings. We thought they wanted the separation of church and state. Can’t they make up their minds?

In 2002 Herald writer Eric Stevick from Everett, WA wrote an article about the Arlington Elementary School nixing the plaque that was planned for their cornerstone ceremony. According to Stevick, the ceremony was canceled 90 minutes before a formal communitywide dedication of Pioneer Elementary School. It was canceled after school district leaders heard community concerns that the Masons could be considered a religious group and would be receiving preferences over other civic or religious organizations.

It would seem that the Orlando community of mouse ears and movie rides didn’t get the memo in time to complain. We wish them well and hope that the local shocked citizens can get the commission to listen to reason.

THE BIG SCAM - - RABIES VACCINATION

By: Dr. John Fudens, D.V.M.

We would like to thank Celestial Diamond for finding this wonderful article and veterinarian to share with you some ‘interesting insights’ from an informed point of view. This is Dr. Fuden’s first article for us and there will be more to follow . . .

I would like to give you, the reader, the truth about the so called required vaccinations, particularly rabies. There are two basic forms of law. One is the legal Constitutional and Common law that this country was founded on, and the other is “colorable” law passed by Administrative agencies/bureaucrats who have been given so called authority to pass laws. Black’s Law Dictionary 5th Edition defines colorable law as “That which is in appearance only, and not in reality, what purports to be, hence counterfeit, feigned, having the appearance of truth.” Yes, I study the law, am a paralegal, and have an extensive law library.

So any and all mandatory rabies vaccination programs are colorable law, in that they have been passed and mandated upon the pet owning public by certain vested interest groups. Who are these groups? First and foremost are veterinarians, in general, and veterinarian medical organizations. Second are the local animal control personnel, bureaucrats and politicians. What are their reasons? GREED, POWER AND CONTROL. Both these large powerful interest groups stand to benefit greatly by having rabies mandated by colorable law.

Veterinarians receive a large percentage of both their gross income and profit from vaccines given in the office. On average vaccines cost 60 to 95 cents per dose and are charged to the client at $15 to $25 per injection and substantially more in the large cities. Therefore, if veterinarians lobby to have a colorable law passed to give rabies vaccine every year that enhances their financial picture.

The veterinary medical societies, by working with other groups and area politicians, are rewarded by increased prestige and professional standing in the community. After all we are protecting you from the dreaded disease rabies, whether it exists or not. Some areas of the country are more enlightened and fortunate to have

LETTER FROM THE ASSITANT EDITOR

A funny thing happened on my way to the other side of the world while I was passing through southern Oregon. I found myself sitting behind this desk volleying the “Assistant Editor” title back and forth with Robert Kelly. He would throw it at me and I would bat it back. It seemed simple enough. Well I guess you can figure out who won.

So I've been hanging around the office here and paying close attention. Most of my time has been spent in research and reading, getting a feel for what The American's Bulletin really stands for and who is it that's actually reading it.

What I found was that in the midst of the non-protest/conditional acceptance arm of the ‘freedom movement,’ (if that’s what you want to call it) there is another movement that has been running parallel to the cause. In case you haven’t heard, we are in the midst of a MASSIVE revolution of epic proportions in the scientific community. You see, modern physicists have discovered a couple of things about our universe that will blow your mind.

What does all this have to do with Redemption and Sovereign freedom? A lot, you see when you have a large group of people with the same prayer and focus, things get done. The grassroots movement for Freedom of America might be a little bit farther along than many people actually might think. On one hand it seems like it's a never ending battle with unholly corporate Big Brother. But, on the other hand. On a much more subtle, yet oh so powerful way. Change is happening. Real change....

So you're going to start seeing some different types of articles crop up. Don't worry, we're not making any drastic changes. We will still provide the same great articles, tips and wisdom that you love to read. But slowly we'll be introducing some of the concepts that our friends from the scientific community are raving about. Perhaps to you they might seem on the surface to be unrelated to the movement, but if you look a little deeper you will see that not only will they assist you in your fight for true Sovereignty, the concepts will help you in every aspect of your life.

As Robert Kelly told you in the last edition the winds of change and hope are certainly blowing. The movement, and indeed the world, has turned a corner. It may have happened when no one was looking, but happen it did. And in this New World Order of sorts, the good guys always win. Maybe not every single battle; but if there ever was a war you could rest assured that God is the ultimate umpteen-star General and the Master of strategy. You're on the winning side.

So sit back and relax, grab a cup of Joe and read away. Over the next several months we're going to start presenting you with all kinds of goodies that hopefully you're be able to apply to all things in your life.

In the mean time, keep sending in your stories! We love to hear from you. Just remember to keep them short and to the point so we can include them in the Bulletin. Enjoy your spring and till the next issue, we wish you and all that you love warm-fuzzy blessings.

What Credit Card Companies Don't Want You to Know

By David Bach

Of all the games the credit card companies play that end up costing you thousands of dollars (late fees, over-limit fees, transfer fees, and so on), it's always been the interest rate game that hurt the most -- until now. There's a new, completely legal game they're playing, and it can literally wipe you out financially if you're not careful. The Universal Default Clause

If you own a credit card, you know by now that if you're late with a payment the credit card company will charge you a late fee in addition to raising your interest rate. But did you know that they can raise your interest rate if you've made a late payment on any of your other cards, including those issued by other companies?

Not only that, but your interest rates can skyrocket to 30 percent or more if you make a late payment on your car loan, mortgage, or even your phone bill!

"How can that be legal?" you may ask. The answer is found in the fine print of your credit card agreement, and it's called a universal default clause. According to the Institute of Consumer Financial Education, currently almost 40 percent of credit card issuers apply this policy to their customers.

A Late Payment 'Trigger'

Generally, a universal default clause states that a creditor reserves the right to penalize you with an increased interest rate if you're late -- that is, in default -- of a payment to any other creditor. They justify this practice because, in theory, if you pay any of your creditors late, you pose a greater credit risk and are less likely to pay your debt. Your creditors also have the right to routinely monitor your credit file. So a creditor with a universal default clause will be watching -- and waiting.

Let's say your Visa card has a universal default clause. Any late payment -- whether it's on your utility bill, home equity loan, or Macy's credit card -- acts as a "default trigger" allowing the bank that issued the Visa card to double or even triple your interest rate overnight. Your all-important credit score will be hurt as well.

According to a study by the nonprofit advocacy and education group Consumer Action, the top three default triggers that cause your interest rates to spike are a decline in credit score, paying your mortgage late, and paying your car loan late.

Other Triggers to Worry About

Under the universal default clause, your interest rates can be increased for several other reasons, including exceeding your credit limit, bouncing a check, having too much debt, having too much credit, getting a new credit card, applying for a car loan, and applying for a mortgage loan.

How does this affect your financial future? Take a look at the numbers. Let's say you're an average American household, with $8,000 of credit card debt. Assuming you make no additional purchases on your card, you have a 9 percent interest rate, and you make the minimum monthly payment, it'll take you 218 months (18 years) to pay off your debt and you'll end up paying $3,334 in interest.

Now let's assume that for whatever reason you were late one month with your car payment. This late payment triggers the universal default clause with your credit card issuer, and now your penalty rate gets increased to 24 percent (the average default rate in 2005). It'll now take you 679 months (56 years) to pay off your credit card debt, and get this -- you'll pay $30,813 in interest.

Staying Ahead of the Clause

Here are six ways to protect yourself from interest rate hike triggers:

1. Stay away from credit cards with a universal default clause. If you're looking to open a new credit card account, be sure to choose one without a universal default clause. This means you have to truly read the fine print. If you're confused by the fine print (as many are), call the credit card company and ask what specific circumstances will affect your interest rate.

I read recently that Capital One cards don't have a universal default clause (although you should double-check before applying), and Citi has dropped its universal default policy as well. In addition, sites like CardWeb.com, Bankrate.com, and LowerMyBills.com let you compare credit card offers, so visit them before you apply.

2. Know your current obligations. Check your current statements and credit card agreements to find out your current interest rates, and to identify which cards have a universal default clause that you weren't aware of until now. Again, if you're uncertain after reading the fine print, call your credit card company. Consider transferring your balance from a card that has the universal default clause to one of your cards that doesn't. But don't rush to cancel the card altogether, because it could have a negative effect on your credit score.

3. Run your credit report. Not only do you need to know exactly what your current interest rates are, you also need to know exactly what's on your credit report. Visit Freecreditreport.com or myFICO to order your credit report and credit score today.

4. Pay your bills on time. According to the American Bankers Association, late payments for most types of consumer loans were on the rise during the third quarter of 2006. If you're having trouble with your credit card payments, at the very least strive to make your minimum payment on time.

5. Be proactive -- call your lender for relief. If you're struggling to make monthly payments on your other bills, like utilities, car payments, or mortgage payments, call your lender to see what options they might be able to offer you. They might be able to adjust your monthly payments so that they're more manageable. Your goal is to protect your credit report and credit score with a consistent record of on-time payments.

6. Fight back for your money -- write your local legislator. Right now, there are amendments to the Truth in Lending Act that, if passed, would prohibit many unfair practices within the credit card industry -- including the universal default clause. As a consumer, you can take action by letting Congress know that you want laws to protect your rights. For more information on how you can be heard, visit Consumer Action's web site. As I write this, Congress is holding hearings to discuss the abusive and

Two Banks Lose Credit Card Case in AZ

By: Les H/Father of ten

Tired of being told Credit Cards are illegal and never seeing a court case to back up the claim? Well now there are two of them.

Both of them were won in 2006 in the Arizona State Superior Court of Maricopa County.

In the links below you will be able to see the files on two cases that were won in Arizona regarding the illegal usage of Credit Cards. It is important to understand that both cases were won because the Conditional Acceptance Remedy for Credit Cards had been done properly and in honor. Call 480-558-3346 for more info on the Remedy.

However, the banks in both these cases defaulted and refused to remain in honor, thus by their silence accepted the terms of the Conditional Acceptance Remedy Contracts presented to them as well as creating a nice judgment based on the Cleopatra Haslip Et Al v. Pacific Mutual Life (See Attachment for case).

Because the banks refused to answer anything regarding the supposed legality of their Credit Cards or the creation of the supposed debts, eventually after procrastinating going to court for almost a year, the court ruled there was no debt and the banks had to fix the bad credit reports as well. In fact in the case involving Discover Bank, there was in question three credit cards worth a totaling supposed debt of $135,000. When the judge ruled in favor of our position, the bank basically had a temper tantrum and demanded a re-ruling of the case.

The judge last November did not take to kindly to them making this request. He then gave the bank another 10 days to come up with the evidence that would allow him to change his mind. Guess what folks, the bank never produced any documentation of any kind to counter the ruling in our clients favor. They could not produce the original promissory note or validate from the banks auditing books any assets that were lost due to the credit card usage. In other words the bank never lost one red cent; they did however make huge amounts of money from monetizing the credit card. So don't feel too sorry for these wonderful people at all.

The Conditional Acceptance Remedy can be used not only against banks for Credit Cards but also mortgages, and foreclosures no matter how far back they occurred. The Remedy can also be used regarding an IRS issue as well and remember if they default there is a huge judgment that goes with it as well.

If you would like more information please call 480-558-3346.

"BEYOND THEIR BOUNDARIES"

By Mark Waller Randolph Blain

Supposedly, we give due respect to and commemorate the U.S. Constitution on Sept. 17th of each year. Why? Because on that date, in 1787, thirty-nine (39) American Statesmen signed [IT] as the foundational principles upon which we as real Americans base our beliefs. But let's examine just a few of the statements by the Framers to see just how much faith and allegiance today's Americans give to the U.S. Constitution. James Madison is acknowledged as the Father/Author of the Constitution. In 1794, when the then 'Continental Congress' appropriated $15,000 for relief for French refugees who fled from insurrection in San Domingo (now Haiti) to Baltimore and Philadelphia, it was Madison who said disapprovingly, "I cannot undertake to lay my finger on that article of the Constitution which granted Congress the right of expending, on objects of benevolence, the money of their constituents.

Today, at least two-thirds of a $2.5-trillion dollar federal budget is spent on "objects of benevolence". That includes: Medicare; Medicaid; Social Security; aid to higher education; farm and business subsidies; welfare; foreign aid; etc., ad nauseum.

Madison's vision was later expressed by Congressman William Giles of Virginia (1790-1798), who condemned a relief measure for fire victims. Giles insisted that it was neither the purpose nor a right of Congress to "attend to what generosity and humanity require, but to what the Constitution and their duty require."

Some Presidents had similar Constitutional respect as well.

In 1854, President Franklin Pierce vetoed a bill to help the men tally ill, saying, "I cannot find any authority in the Constitution for public charity," adding that to approve the measure "it would be contrary to the letter and the spirit of the Constitution, and subversive to the whole theory upon which the Union of these States is founded." President Grover Cleveland vetoed many congressional appropriations, often saying, "there is no Constitutional authority for such appropriations." In vetoing a bill for relief charity, he is quoted as remarking, "I can find no warrant for such an appropriation in the Constitution, and I do not believe that the power and duty of the General Government ought to be extended to the relief of general suffering, which is in no manner properly related to the public service or benefit."

Constitutionally ignorant people might try to argue that the Constitution's 'general welfare' clause justifies today's actions by Congress. But here's what Madison said: "If Congress can do whatever in their discretion can be done by money, and promotes the general welfare, the Government is no longer a limited one, but an indefinite one, subject to particular exceptions."

Thomas Jefferson echoed Madison in a letter to then Pennsylvania Congressman Albert Gallatin. He wrote, "Congress has not unlimited powers to provide for the general welfare, but only those powers specifically enumerated."

And it was Madison who explained the constitutional limits on federal power in his paper, Federalist Paper No. 45: "The powers delegated by the proposed Constitution to the federal government are few and defined ...[to] be exercised principally on external objects, as war, peace, negotiation, and foreign commerce."

Here are my questions to all 'Sovereigns': Has our Constitution been amended to authorize federal spending on "objects of benevolence"? Of course not. Or, is it plain and simple contempt by Congress, the President, the courts, and worst of all, we the people? Or am I being overly pessimistic, and it's simply a matter of Constitutional ignorance? What say you, Sovereigns? Sincerely Yours, Mark Blain, #132399 KMCC, C-414, POB 860 Oakwood, VA 24631

Man Facing Jail and Fine for Removing Branch from Horse Trail

It has been discovered that the Bureau of Land Management, BLM, employees intentionally obstruct open trails with dangerous debris and deceptive signage.

Investigative Reporter
-- H. Howard Hewitt.
March 18, 2007.
-- from Josephine County, Oregon.
hhhewittving@yahoo.com

A man is facing 1 year in prison and $1000 fine for removing hazardous obstacles from trails.

John Henry, generally referred to as a peaceful and generous man, had intended to enjoy a ride along the horse trail with his daughter when they found booby-traps obstructing their way. Since the debris is hazardous to the horses by complete obstruction or for safe passage, it seemed like common sense to abate any peril found upon the trail.

Despite a congressional mandate to maintain and improve the quality of recreation, the BLM does not share Congress' or Mr. Henry's ideas, logic, or sense of trail safety and wants to further its Closure Agenda.

While Mr. Henry and a friend were scouting for haz- ardously placed debris, a BLM employee, Tom Gentry, appeared from the brush and asked what they were doing on the mountain trail.

Mr. Henry told Gentry that he was taking pictures of all the dangerous debris intentionally thrown on the trail and to secure safe passage. Henry's friend added, "There is no way to do endurance training on the trails" with all the obstruction he'd seen on the trail.\ Henry inquired into why the dangerous obstructions were being placed on the trail.

"We place the obstructions because we don't know what else to do to stop motorcycle riders from coming into the area," BLM agent Gentry timidly answered.

Henry told Gentry that placing obstacles was making a haz- ard for every- one and that Obstruction placements were acts of terrorism, that unsuspect- ing people are going to get hurt. Gentry did not respond to that and disappeared, running up the trail.

In an exchange, a week before on May 29, 2006, with another BLM employee, Vickie Whiteaker, Henry first found out BLM employees are placing the hazards on the trails. Whiteaker, out of apparent frustration with Henry's discovery snapped, "Any time those are removed, we'll be right back out here to put them back on!!!"

"And the trail you rode on ear- lier, we just got finished placing obstructions on that one, again." "And there's nothing you can do to stop us!!!" "You can leave the trail and ride around them!!!"

Henry's young Daughter was shocked at Vickie's response and conduct coming from the, once, long-time riding partner,

"Friends don't do that." Some weeks later upon an infe- rior and apparently self-serving investigation, BLM Officer, Donald Robinson, issued two violation notices charging $100 "collateral" plus $25 fee for each count of Maintaining A Trail Without BLM Authorization, 43 CFR 8351.2-1 (8) (d), instructing a court appearance for a Sunday. The federal court in Medford, Oregon, closed on the weekend works to deny Henry due process. Robinson also stated, when ques- tioned upon the reason for the viola- tion notices, "I'm just doing my job," that the U.S. deputy attorney, [Douglas W. Fong], told him to, "Just give him [Henry] the papers and we'll take care of him."

Mr. Henry states, "The violation notices didn't issue until after I had informed various govern- ment depart- ments, such as the Department of Interior, Inspector General, and the U.S. Attorney, Oregon, exposing that their employees were creating risks of harm to people, and provid- ing opportunity to fix it."

That the notices are facially defec- tive but the persecution continues confirms the U.S. Attorneys intend, to "take care of him." What's more ironic is the United States is merely 'a Federal corporation', 28 USC 3002 (15), as the U.S. Code shows. This is a corporate hit on Henry. The court record shows a filing challenging the subject matter juris- diction of the court remaining unan- swered by the government. Failure to answer such a challenge normally is fatal to any authority respecting lawful avoidance remedies.

Instead of answering the challenge, government Attorneys had Henry arrested, brutalized, and deprived of substantial rights as retaliation. Ironically, in September of 2006, the Inspector General of the Department of Interior testified before Congress regarding the prevalent corrupt influence of Special Interests upon the Dept. of Interior.

Mr. Henry, already denied the most basic due process, indicated this, "was obviously going to be a Railroadng." Seven days later, despite the special appearance and challenge, instead of writing the required Finding from the evidence in the record, a magistrate, of challenged authority, issued an arrest warrant which was executed by more than 6 federal marshals, guns drawn, who descended upon Mr. Henry, while he helped a friend with a custom truck.

Henry said, "The force used to arrest an innocent man was unwarranted, but that was nothing compared to the abuses in the jail. I was denied every right, dignity, or respect and put four days in a place they call The Hole, and isolation."

"I was even told by the jail guards that Abu Ghraib got it from them." "Maybe this is why I was threatened with Tazers and suffered other abuse every time I attempted to invoke my inherent rights," Henry supposed.

In recounting the hearings forced upon him, "Magistrate Cooney and Judge Panner are ignoring my court filings and rights and they are not going to let me have a jury trial. As Cooney said when I tried exer- cising a lawful preplea remedy, "HEY! This is the way it works . . . I'll tell you what your rights are."

"My true name didn't conform to the complaint so Cooney fraudulently fabricated a name, a wrongful Identity FOR the prosecution." Henry considered, "People would be shocked to see the sys- temic abuses of the U.S. courts."

"You have no rights, but to pay exactions [extortions] of every kind." See: "Civil Rights": 42 USC 1981. "I'll tell you your rights, Toby!" He continued, "It feels just like the movies ROOTS, or ARMISTAD where the Spanish Slaver renamed their abductees and then sold them into the Commerce of the United States."

"A ticket is forced on you and punched for the Train to Deprivation and leaves the station." "They have the cart WAY before the horse, but these Attorneys do not care. There is no law."

"Unlike the Movies or TV, Bar members and their courts are not any protection but an obstruction, Woe as stated in Luke 11:52." "We're all present day slaves feed- ing the system Lawyers invented, not peaceful or dignified."

"I see why the prisons are full." "But I can't let this go. It is wrong for the BLM to put people at risk and for Bar members to cover it up." "If I lose, we all lose." "Notwithstanding my innocence, I could just pay the $100 extortion to get out from under the oppression and keep clearing hazards, but the agencies will use it as an excuse to keep endangering people." "If I do not oppose this and more people get hurt, I don't know how I would feel about that." "Things have gotten absolutely insane." "No government agency has any right to attack people enjoying their own land."

"This is our backyard, God given." "Using unlim- ited organized resources, the U.S. courts are working with the U.S. pros- ecutors who work in concert with the U.S. Agencies committing violence to deny us land and safety.

They are treating me like I'm some paid profiteer, contractor, employee, or human resource of the United States violating some performance agree- ment."

"But the truth is, they are trying to make an example out of me for exposing them for the crimes they are committing against people," Henry observed. A friend who was with Mr. Henry also investigating the many reports of people being damaged by the BLM agenda to close off the for- est said, "This is absolutely outra- geous."

He says His letters to the agen- cies about his investigations have remained unanswered as well; No response.

Henry added, "I see with my own eyes, the gov- ernment can not be trust- ed. I have absolutely no confidence government secures or protects peo- ple. There is no doubt, the only terrorism that is occurring in America is that com- mitted by the government itself. As a friend says, "The Federal Corporation has failed its mission statement. If it won't respect its limits, it won't respect any one, and we have a big problem."

Henry stated, "The immense impu- dence of these Federal corporation employees is evident.

I won't leave a hazard on a trail which will harm me or others. This can only be a problem because the BLM and Government wants people harmed."

"I have the inherent right and duty to protect those around me and no just law says otherwise."

Disappointed, Mr. Henry and his daughter never did finish their attempts to complete the trail rides. If the BLM Closure Agenda has its way, that ride will not happen, for while Henry wastes away in jail for moving a branch from a trail, unchecked BLM trail-trash- ings prevail.

"And there's nothing you can do to stop us!"

--Vickie Whiteaker, BLM Employee.

The Battle for Your Mind

The following is a reprint of a portion of by Dick Sutphen. We appreciate Dick's research and we are happy to be able to bring this to you.

Persuasion Techniques

Persuasion isn't technically brainwashing but it is the manipulation of the human mind by another individual, without the manipulated party being aware what caused his opinion shift. I only have time to very basically introduce you to a few of the thousands of techniques in use today, but the basis of persuasion is always to access your RIGHT BRAIN. The left half of your brain is analytical and rational. The right side is creative and imaginative. That is overly simplified but it makes my point. So, the idea is to distract the left brain and keep it busy. Ideally, the persuader generates an eyes-open altered state of consciousness, causing you to shift from beta awareness into alpha; this can be measured on an EEG machine.

First, let me give you an example of distracting the left brain. Politicians use these powerful techniques all the time; lawyers use many variations which, I've been told, they call "tightening the noose."

Assume for a moment that you are watching a politician give a speech. First, he might generate what is called a "YES SET." These are statements that will cause listeners to agree; they might even unknowingly nod their heads in agreement. Next come the TRUISMS. These are usually facts that could be debated but, once the politician has his audience agreeing, the odds are in the politician's favor that the audience won't stop to think for themselves, thus continuing to agree. Last comes the SUGGESTION. This is what the politician wants you to do and, since you have been agreeing all along, you could be persuaded to accept the suggestion. Now, if you'll listen closely to my political speech, you'll find that the first three are the "yes set," the next three are truisms and the last is the suggestion.

"Ladies and gentlemen: are you angry about high food prices? Are you tired of astronomical gas prices? Are you sick of out-of-control inflation? Well, you know the Other Party allowed 18 percent inflation last year; you know crime has increased 50 percent nationwide in the last 12 months, and you know your paycheck hardly covers your expenses any more. Well, the answer to resolving these problems is to elect me, John Jones, to the U.S. Senate."

And I think you've heard all that before. But you might also watch for what are called Imbedded Commands. As an example: On key words, the speaker would make a gesture with his left hand, which research has shown is more apt to access your right brain. Today's media-oriented politicians and spellbinders are often carefully trained by a whole new breed of specialist who are using every trick in the book--both old and new--to manipulate you into accepting their candidate.

The concepts and techniques of Neuro-Linguistics are so heavily protected that I found out the hard way that to even talk about them publicly or in print results in threatened legal action. Yet Neuro-Linguistic training is readily available to anyone willing to devote the time and pay the price. It is some of the most subtle and powerful manipulation I have yet been exposed to. A good friend who recently attended a two-week seminar on NeuroLinguistics found that many of those she talked to during the breaks were government people.

Another technique that I'm just learning about is unbelievably slippery; it is called an INTERSPERSAL TECHNIQUE and the idea is to say one thing with words but plant a subconscious impression of something else in the minds of the listeners and/or watchers.

Let me give you an example: Assume you are watching a television commentator make the following statement: SENATOR JOHNSON is assisting local authorities to clear up the stupid mistakes of companies contributing to the nuclear waste problems." It sounds like a statement of fact, but, if the speaker emphasizes the right word, and especially if he makes the proper hand gestures on the key words, you could be left with the subconscious impression that Senator Johnson is stupid. That was the subliminal goal of the statement and the speaker cannot be called to account for anything.

Persuasion techniques are also frequently used on a much smaller scale with just as much effectiveness. The insurance salesman knows his pitch is likely to be much more effective if he can get you to visualize something in your mind. This is right-brain communication. For instance, he might pause in his conversation look slowly around your living room and say, "Can you just imagine this beautiful home burning to the ground?" Of course you can! It is one of your unconscious fears and, when he forces you to visualize it, you are more likely to be manipulated into signing his insurance policy.

The Hare Krishna's, operating in every airport, use what I call SHOCK AND CONFUSION techniques to distract the left brain and communicate directly with the right brain. While waiting for a plane, I once watched one operate for over an hour. He had a technique of almost jumping in front of someone. Initially, his voice was loud then dropped as he made his pitch to take a book and contribute money to the cause. Usually, when people are shocked, they immediately withdraw. In this case they were shocked by the strange appearance, sudden materialization and loud voice of the Hare Krishna devotee. In other words, the people went into an alpha state for security because they didn't want to confront the reality before them. In alpha, they were highly suggestible so they responded to the suggestion of taking the book; the moment they took the book, they felt guilty and responded to the second suggestion: give money. We are all conditioned that if someone gives us something, we have to give them something in return--in that case, it was money. While watching this hustler, I was close enough to notice that many of the people he stopped exhibited an outward sign of alpha--their eyes were actually dilated.

Subliminal Programming

Subliminals are hidden suggestions that only your subconscious perceives. They can be audio, hidden behind music, or visual, airbrushed into a picture, flashed on a screen so fast that you don't consciously see them, or cleverly incorporated into a picture or design.

Most audio subliminal reprogramming tapes offer verbal suggestions recorded at a low volume. I question the efficacy of this technique--if subliminals are not perceptible, they cannot be effective, and subliminals recorded below the audible threshold are therefore useless. The oldest audio subliminal technique uses a voice that follows the volume of the music so subliminals are impossible to detect without a parametric equalizer. But this technique is patented and, when I wanted to develop my own line of subliminal audiocassettes, negotiations with the patent holder proved to be unsatisfactory. My attorney obtained copies of the patents which I gave to some talented Hollywood sound engineers, asking them to create a new technique. They found a way to psychoacoustically modify and synthesize the suggestions so that they are projected in the same chord and frequency as the music, thus giving them the effect of being part of the music. But we found that in using this technique, there is no way to reduce various frequencies to detect the subliminals. In other words, although the suggestions are being heard by the subconscious mind, they cannot be monitored with even the most sophisticated equipment.

If we were able to come up with this technique as easily as we did, I can only imagine how sophisticated the technology has become, with unlimited government or advertising funding. And I shudder to think about the propaganda and commercial manipulation that we are exposed to on a daily basis. There is simply no way to know what is behind the music you hear. It may even be possible to hide a second voice behind the voice to which you are listening.

The series by Wilson Bryan Key, Ph.D., on subliminals in advertising and political campaigns well documents the misuse in many areas, especially printed advertising in newspapers, magazines, and posters.

The big question about subliminals is: do they work? And I guarantee you they do. Not only from the response of those who have used my tapes, but from the results of such programs as the subliminals behind the music in department stores. Supposedly, the only message is instructions to not steal: one East Coast department store chain reported a 37 percent reduction in thefts in the first nine months of testing.

A 1984 article in the technical newsletter, "Brain-Mind Bulletin," states that as much as 99 percent of our cognitive activity may be "non-conscious," according to the director of the Laboratory for Cognitive Psychophysiology at the University of Illinois. The lengthy report ends with the statement, "these findings support the use of subliminal approaches such as taped suggestions for weight loss and the therapeutic use of hypnosis and Neuro-Linguistic Programming."

Mass Misuse

I could relate many stories that support subliminal programming, but I'd rather use my time to make you aware of even more subtle uses of such programming.

I have personally experienced sitting in a Los Angeles auditorium with over ten thousand people who were gathered to listen to a current charismatic figure. Twenty minutes after entering the auditorium, I became aware that I was going in and out of an altered state. Those accompanying me experienced the same thing. Since it is our business, we were aware of what was happening, but those around us were not. By careful observation, what appeared to be spontaneous demonstrations were, in fact, artful manipulations. The only way I could figure that the eyes-open trance had been induced was that a 6- to 7-cycle-per-second vibration was being piped into the room behind the air conditioner sound. That particular vibration generates alpha, which would render the audience highly susceptible. Ten to 25 percent of the population is capable of a somnambulist level of altered states of consciousness; for these people, the suggestions of the speaker, if non-threatening, could potentially be accepted as "commands."

Vibrato

This leads to the mention of VIBRATO. Vibrato is the tremulous effect imparted in some vocal or instrumental music, and the cycle-per-second range causes people to go into an altered state of consciousness. At one period of English history, singers whose voices contained pronounced vibrato were not allowed to perform publicly because listeners would go into an altered state and have fantasies, often sexual in nature. People who attend opera or enjoy listening to singers like Mario Lanza are familiar with this altered state induced by the performers.

ELFs

Now, let's carry this awareness a little farther. There are also inaudible ELFs (extra-low frequency waves). These are electromagnetic in nature. One of the primary uses of ELFs is to communicate with our submarines. Dr. Andrija Puharich, a highly respected researcher, in an attempt to warn U.S. officials about Russian use of ELFs, set up an experiment. Volunteers were wired so their brain waves could be measured on an EEG. They were sealed in a metal room that could not be penetrated by a normal signal.

Puharich then beamed ELF waves at the volunteers. ELFs go right through the earth and, of course, right through metal walls. Those inside couldn't know if the signal was or was not being sent. And Puharich watched the reactions on the technical equipment: 30 percent of those inside the room were taken over by the ELF signal in six to ten seconds.

When I say "taken over," I mean that their behavior followed the changes anticipated at very precise frequencies. Waves below 6 cycles per second caused the subjects to become very emotionally upset, and even disrupted bodily functions. At 8.2 cycles, they felt very high ... an elevated feeling, as though they had been in masterful meditation, learned over a period of years. Eleven to 11.3 cycles induced waves of depressed agitation leading to riotous behavior.

The Neurophone

Dr. Patrick Flanagan is a personal friend of mine. In the early 1960s, as a teenager, Pat was listed as one of the top scientists in the world by "Life" magazine. Among his many inventions was a device he called the Neurophone--an electronic instrument that can successfully program suggestions directly through contact with the skin. When he attempted to patent the device, the government demanded that he prove it worked. When he did, the National Security Agency confiscated the neurophone. It took Pat two years of legal battle to get his invention back.

In using the device, you don't hear or see a thing; it is applied to the skin, which Pat claims is the source of special senses. The skin contains more sensors for heat, touch, pain, vibration, and electrical fields than any other part of the human anatomy.

In one of his recent tests, Pat conducted two identical seminars for a military audience--one seminar one night and one the next night, because the size of the room was not large enough to accommodate all of them at one time. When the first group proved to be very cool and unwilling to respond, Patrick spent the next day making a special tape to play at the second seminar. The tape instructed the audience to be extremely warm and responsive and for their hands to become "tingly." The tape was played through the neurophone, which was connected to a wire he placed along the ceiling of the room. There were no speakers, so no sound could be heard, yet the message was successfully transmitted from that wire directly into the brains of the audience. They were warm and receptive, their hands tingled and they responded, according to programming, in other ways that I cannot mention here.

The more we find out about how human beings work through today's highly advanced technological research, the more we learn to control human beings. And what probably scares me the most is that the medium for takeover is already in place! The television set in your livingroom and bedroom is doing a lot more than just entertaining you. Before I continue, let me point out something else about an altered state of consciousness. When you go into an altered state, you transfer into right brain, which results in the internal release of the body's own opiates: enkephalins and Beta-endorphins, chemically almost identical to opium. In other words, it feels good ... and you want to come back for more.

Recent tests by researcher Herbert Krugman showed that, while viewers were watching TV, right-brain activity outnumbered leftbrain activity by a ratio of two to one. Put more simply, the viewers were in an altered state ... in trance more often than not. They were getting their Beta-endorphin "fix."

To measure attention spans, psychophysiolgist Thomas Mulholland of the Veterans Hospital in Bedford, Massachusetts, attached young viewers to an EEG machine that was wired to shut the TV set off whenever the children's brains produced a majority of alpha waves. Although the children were told to concentrate, only a few could keep the set on for more than 30 seconds!

Most viewers are already hypnotized. To deepen the trance is easy. One simple way is to place a blank, black frame every 32 frames in the film that is being projected. This creates a 45-beat-perminute pulsation perceived only by the

Usury and the Bible

By: Duane Keith Wykoff

For the subject of “usury” and its application(s) for the Church, the scriptures you are looking for are:

“If you lend money to any of My people who are poor among you, you shall not be like a moneylender to him, you shall not charge him interest.” Exodus 22:25 (NKJV)

“if one of your brethren becomes poor, and falls into poverty among you, then you shall help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you. Take no usury or interest from him; but fear your God, that your brother may live with you. You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit.” Leviticus 25:35-37 (NKJV)

“You shall not charge interest to your brother - interest on money or food or anything that is lent out at interest. To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you shall not charge interest, that the LORD your God may bless you in all to which you set your hand in the land wch you are entering to possess.” Deuteronomy 23:19-20 (NKJV)

“He who does not put out his money at usury, nor does he take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be moved.” Psalms 15:5 (NKJV)

“One who increases his possessions by usury and extortion gathers it for him who will pity the poor.” Proverbs 28:8 (NKJV)

Please note that usury was a perfectly acceptable practice for the Israelites to extract from foreigners; i.e., ANY outside the nation of Israel. It was due to this reason why William the Conqueror, upon besting the British at Hastings in 1066, employed the Jewish people as his bankers. He thought he found a loop-hole in God’s Law I suppose, and where he could not practice usury, they could outside their national blood lines. I suppose William rather glossed over that particular Scripture which states “Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.” Galatians 6:7 (NKJV).

Though Scripture does not appear to draw any distinction between usury and interest, it being equal in concept, understanding, and practice, it must be understood by the Church as a prohibition under the Mosaic Law, and as such, as much as it may gull some, the Church is NOT now, NEVER was, and never WILL be under/operating by the Mosaic Law, please read Galatians. The Mosaic Law is a part of the natural growth and progressive revelation by YHWH of His plan(s) for the Jewish nation as established within the Abrahamic Covenant, and though the Church has some small part within this Covenant, it is as a “beneficiary party,” not a contracting party, arising out of that portion of the Covenant denoted as “The New Covenant.” The Abrahamic Covenant is strictly between God and the Jewish~people as the nation of Israel, as is the Mosaic Law, which they chose.

Does this mean that the Mosaic Law, its principles, tenants, truths, and the like, have no relevance, impact, bearing, or application upon the Church? No; however, the Church is the personification of the fulfill-from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil.” Luke 6:30-35 (NKJV) [Bolded emphasis added].

Within this Scripture, our

Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back.

ment of that Law through its Lord, Redeemer, and King. The Church neither operates by execution of this Law nor operation of it. The Church, through love, is the fulfillment of it. The Church operates through the Law of Grace, which in love, naturally obeys, not the letter of the this Law (which brings death), but the spirit of this Law (which gives life), having the Holy Spirit as guide, teacher, revealer, counselor, comforter. The Church is not called to sacrifice of which till ‘S Law required, it Isis called to obey, and when it errs, its Lord reminds ANY and ALL who would dare to prosecute a charge against it, that His sacrifice made on its behalf is sufficient in the economy of God and no debt exists, neither the object NOR the shadow of it, it is gone, paid in full. The Church is under, within, and at the Law of Grace, and believe it or not, during this particular dispensation, so is all the world of man, even the Jewish nation of Israel.

So, is the practice of usury forbidden to the Church, and if so, how is not by and through the Mosaic Law? The Lord gives, from His own mouth, the answer in Scripture:

“Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise. But if you love those who love you, what credit a s that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those

Lord condemns ALL usury, without distinction to national lines, religious affiliation, blood, race, what-have-you. For in this particular dispensation, their is neither Jew nor Greek, it is the brotherhood of mankind which is being dealt with at present.

Also, please note the use of the word “lend,” which one commonly understands as implying the return of that which is lent by the borrower (Debtor) to the lender (Creditor) at some future date. However, as He was speaking to the Jewish audience here, well acquainted with the practice of loans and usury thereupon, note He said to “lend” with absolutely no expectation of receiving back . This would not be a “loan,” it would be a gift, which was exactly what He was about to make them understand through His Church. All through the New Testament, our Lord through His own mouth, and those of His disciples, states over and over again to “give.” He does not say “lend” or “loan.” The new economy is based upon grace; i.e., receiving that which one does not deserve rather than what one does deserve. It is a gift, and an economy based upon gifting. Does not Scripture say; “...freely you have received, freely give.”? (Mt. 10:8). This is the principle upon which the Church operates, for ALL property, regardless of its form, nature, and manner is not ours, but His, of which we hold in trust as stewards to see to it that it is managed in the manner He directs and applied to His administration upon this earth for the benefit of all mankind.

You may recall the parable of the talents found in Scripture at Matthew 25:14-30.

A master needs to depart on business, so he calls his servants together and delivers his goods to them. This delivery of his goods covered only possession and use, not title, for which the servants were acting as agents with a fiduciary trust to their master to manage these goods for the benefit of their master and to his best interests). Upon the master’s return, he cal lied his servants to him to receive back his trust; his goods, as an act of redemption thereof. This master, upon receiving his account back from the third servant, who buried the talent entrusted to him for fear of his master, was rebuked for being lazy and wicked. His master condemned him for his ill-management of his trust as stated in verse 27 (NKJV):

“So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest.”

How does this square with the universal condemnation of usury prohibited at Luke 6:30-35? One, bear in mind to whom He was talking. It was not the Church, but the Jewish nation of Israel which was steeped in the practice and knowledge of loans and usury. Two, this prohibition upon usury found at Luke 6:30-35, is upon our acts, the Church does not lend, it gives. Some will argue that the taking of usury in the sense of a reasonable rate of interest for the use of money employed in business or trade is different and is nowhere forbidden in Scripture and is perfectly understood in Scripture as allowable based upon Matthew 25:27; and, Luke 19:23). My contention is this, find the disciples saying to the Church, anywhere, even if vague, that it is a perfectly acceptable practice for the Church. The Church, of whom we are all members comprising a single whole, are no where called to exact usury in any set of circumstances.

We are charged with a trust as a Trustee thereof, which encompasses all which we have and hold, and we have absolutely nothing which was not given to us by our Father and Lord. This trust is a treasury from which we draw in order to conduct, facilitate, and administer the affairs of our Father through our Lord upon this earth. We can make use of it as He directs. Additionally, we are merely sowers, and this trust facilitates that mission, I ask you, who’s job is s it to see that this trust, this treasury is maintained and increases? I would suggest His (See: Matthew 25:29; I Corinthians 3:6; Romans 8:32).

As for these torts and the application of usury; or the forbearance thereof therein, they are based upon, and arise from, the moral wrongs of others causing injury, pain, and suffering, to others, and for some reason, I just can’t see either our Father and/or Lord finding it pleasing nor right to profit from the injury, pain, and suffering of anyone, not even ourselves through applying usury, can you?

‘Scam’

three years. You can be assured the rise of rabies is never taken into account as to whether the vaccine should be required or not. More on this later. The local government personnel benefit by extending more control over our lives, enriching the public treasury with fees, tags and fines, and giving the appearance that local government is doing something about animal populations, disease and risks to the public. Since rabies vaccines have been mandated, what county or area has seen less dog and cat bites, better animal control, more public awareness and educating of pet owning responsibility, better birth control of unwanted animals, less euthanasia of animals and decreased growth of animal control facilities?
These special groups and lobbies will use any argument, realistic or not, to justify their position. They are excellent at using the media to spread the lies and distortions. Examples: We have increased numbers of dogs biting people, pitbulls attacking and killing children are on the increase, more dogs and cats are running loose terrorizing neighborhoods, killing wildlife and other domestic stock, etc...ad nauseum. The only thing rabies vaccination is for is the protection from rabies virus, all other justifiers for the vaccine fall under human control and exist because there are a certain number of humans, connected to animals, who are irresponsible. Rabies is spread by the bite of an infected animal. The number of dog/cat bite cases in the U.S. that expose humans to rabies is as rare as shark attacks. This low incident rate has nothing to do with mandatory vaccination as the number of cases was low before the mandatory requirement.

Let me give you an example of Pinellas County, FL where my Affinity Clinic is located. I secured information from Pinellas Animal Control through the Freedom of Information Act. The record of animal control starts in 1964. From 1964 to 1978 there were zero cases of dog rabies in the county. Magically in 1978 rabies vaccine was mandated to be given every year and all dogs tagged and licensed. WHY? Well it seems four veterinarians, with animal control bureaucrats, pushed the county board of supervisors to pass a law mandating rabies vaccination every year. There were three local vets and one professor from the State Veterinary College who were behind this. It was interesting reading their letters pushing this law and the minutes of the county meeting. There was talk of dogs biting people (no actual figures given), dogs running loose, animal overpopulation, rabies on the increase in the U.S. (the increase was in wildlife, not dogs), etc.,etc. Not once was the issue discussed that there was no rabies in the county in dogs. To this date there still has not been one case of dog rabies, including the population of dogs whose owners, GOD BLESS THEM, do not vaccinate for rabies. Let's go further.

From 1964 to 1989 there were no cases of rabies in cats in Pinellas County. Magically in 1989 a law was passed mandating rabies vaccination, tags and licenses for all cats. Same tired worn out excuses were used. Since the 1989 law there was one cat with rabies contracted from the bite of a bat. DO YOU READERS REALLY UNDERSTAND WHAT I HAVE JUST STATED? This is standard throughout the Country. No allowance is made for dogs/cats who never leave the house or yard, could never be exposed to rabies under any circumstances, or who are so ill, old or at the end of their life cycle that the rabies vaccine would throw them over the edge. No, all dogs and cats are treated the same because we have the bogeyman, rabies, stalking the streets waiting to strike unprotected dogs and cats.
Is there rabies in this Country? You bet. Are there areas of this Country that have rabies in their wildlife population and do some dogs/cats become infected? You bet. But let's be realistic. Rabies has been on this earth long before man walked here and will be here long after we are gone. The only way to get rid of rabies is to remove mankind and the upper animals susceptible to the virus. Then maybe the virus will die off. It is a self limiting disease in the wild as it is fatal. So the virus has an extremely hard time spreading far and wide.

What is wrong with targeting those areas of the Country that have a problem with rabies using a realistic and specially formulated program that will protect the population at risk? Too logical and the special groups don't make any money. Why not educate the pet owner to the risks and dangers and let them decide whether the immune system damage from rabies vaccination is greater or lesser than contracting the disease. We do have a God given Constitutionally secured right to LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS. Public health officials always have the right to mandate emergency health care procedures in case the public, in general does not respond properly. But why should every day, month and year be as if an emergency or crisis exists? And why should we have more and more control of our lives taken from us?
The vaccines, particularly rabies, are a political and economic scam being forced upon pet owners because they do not know the truth. Rabies, nationwide, is nowhere near the problem the veterinarians, media, politicians and bureaucrats would like you to believe. If you wish more of the truth go to your local city or county government building and look up the codes and statutes concerning vaccines and rabies. Get figures from local animal control for rabies in dogs, cats and wildlife in your area. Then you can start to fight back, take control of your life, and protect your pet from the only dreaded disease that is important-special interest groups pushing their program leading to vaccine induced damaged immune systems. Only you can set yourself free.

Current Veterinary Therapy by Kirk, the textbook bible for veterinarians in general, has an article on canine and feline vaccines by two researchers. Near the end of the article is a paragraph called Annual Vaccinations. It states "The practice of annual vaccinations lacks scientific validity or verification. There is no immunological requirement for annual vaccinations. The practice of annual vaccinations should be considered of questionable efficacy unless it is used as a mechanism to provide an annual physical examination or is required by law." Sure, if we can't manipulate you with annual vaccinations let's pass a law to get you into the office. Nice trick!
Well reader, it is your choice. I can only hope to stimulate you to look and go further. You don't have to take this suppression. Fight back. The only thing you have to lose is your freedom and you have already lost a great deal of it. I can fight with you but I can't do it alone.

Articles of Incorporation Marriage Therapy for the Rest of Us

By Tara Gibbs

Relationships can be challenging. Working tricks of the commercial trade into our mindset can help us to remain fresh and engaged in our shared experiences with others. By utilizing techniques of mental classification we can use the spirit of passion that often sustains people in their careers to provide a way to train our minds to recognize the importance of maintaining relationships with those we love.

One of the most beautiful things of the freedom movement is that it moves. One of the hypnotic myths to come out of the dark matrix is that children need stability. This leads us to think stability is good and change is bad. So as adults we resist change because the child in us is afraid that it will hurt. After all, that's what we were taught. Well that may be true or not, but children are one of the most adaptable species on Earth. Given love and support, a child can handle just about anything and do so even as a game. They don't see things the way adults do having had their brains hardened from conditioning. Perhaps that's why all the great teachers remind us to be like the little children. Change is good. Ask most any body of water and it will tell you that it likes to move around. Life moves.

Through all of time, change is omnipresent and it is the basic element of Universal law. – Laurie A Monroe, Author & Scientist

That tiny little subtlety of solidarity planted in our young subconscious was fed with the politics of our parents and watered with the religions of our grandparents. It grew into some pretty serious trees if you look around at us. Some of us have the programming of mighty oaks, some of us are majestic pines. I know mine is a nut tree of some kind because it keeps clanking me on the head. The point is, all of us are programmed entities. As we awaken to this fact we can get on with taking control of our own programming.

In the commerce world we live in we are growing to understand that even our marriages are a contract. True, we are contacting with the state when we file that marriage license, but we can actually use that to our advantage. Think about it. If you choose to do a state filing of a marriage license, or you already have, it doesn't have to be a cold, irrelevant thing. We can be like the little child and make it a game. One could use the corporate structure as a delightful way to see your relationship as a partnership deserving as much time and respect as we would give our business. By using the structure provided for a company a couple can in the same way make amendments or changes to their agreements just as a company would do in a board meeting to continue to steer the ship in the desired direction.

Ask any small business owner and they'll quickly tell you how much time and energy they put into their business, but when it comes to the people we love the most, often times we barely give a glance or a mumble when we bump them in the hall. Perhaps a little formality will lend credit and respect to the spirit of marriage and build a bridge in our minds to our roles and responsibilities; the care and feeding of the relationship itself.

When an entity chooses to incorporate in this country it files the Articles of Incorporation with their perspective state. These articles normally contain fundamental structural information such as the names and information of who's involved. If you choose, you can draw up your own certificate of marriage saying the same thing. The happy couple can even hang it on the wall like many companies would stick up their first dollar. You can also put important provisions that will impact future decisions inside the articles. For example you could instill a directive that there are always extra blankets on hand because she steals the covers or you could write that you both promise to not leave the Christmas lights up all year. It can be anything you want, but mostly it's a general thing because the more active and daily things would go in the Bylaws. The Articles are the 'I do's.' It's the statement of "I promise to hang out with you and be a witness to your life."

If the Articles are the 'yup, we're gonna do this,' then the Bylaws of the company are what it is we are agreeing to do. In The Five Love Languages, a phenomenal book by Gary Chapman that all couples should read, he suggests taking maybe three things to start with that are your desired expressions of love for each other. For example if your sweetheart feels loved by you doing the dishes or cleaning the house than it is expressed here. If one of you feels loved by the other by enjoying quality time then you two agree to set up a date night or some time span that is set aside for doing something together (and this does not mean sitting next to each other in front of the TV.)

Just like a healthy company would hold occasional meetings to check on the progress and feelings of the people involved, so too would you to check on the direction of your relationship. Corporations are required to have meetings at least once a year. I would strongly suggest that you don't wait a full year to sit and talk about how each person feels and what's going on in each others lives. Chapman would say it's good to just check in with each other at least three times in a week for three weeks to get on track. Once there is a steady flow of communication is established and you just continue to water each other's garden. Since it is a requirement of companies to meet once a year, it should be a natural requirement for relationships to have a vacation at least that often. Your marriage corporation meetings can be anywhere in the world. You can go to Fiji, Europe, Disney World or even try sending the kids to the in-laws, unplugging the phone, computers and TV and having a vacation in your own home complete with floor picnics and flowers. The point is to connect and be real.

Already holding a going out of business sign? Just like in the land of commerce, partnerships sometimes dissolve. A great majority of the populous has either gone through, going through or will go through some type of break up. Understanding the role of a partnership in the first place can sometimes help the wounded soul to know that it is still whole and complete without the other person. People grow and change at different rates and speeds and sometimes those changes are too much for the other person, or perhaps just not enough. The relationship has run its course and the parties involved choose to make a new world and a new life with Articles and Bylaws of their own. The same informal or formal process of drawing up an agreement, this time with only yourself can be very healing and nurturing. It can allow you to chart a course and check in with yourself to see if you're still on track with your own dreams and goals. Make time to spend with yourself and the people who make you feel good.

The ultimate goal of this and all Sovereignty is to stand in the power of your own divine nature. To recognize the light and power of the Diving creator inside yourself is the highest realization one can achieve. Sometimes we do that in partnership with others, and sometimes we do it in the freedom and strength of our own power, but always it's a process of the heart.

The techniques and games are used to keep the mind engaged once the initial chemicals of falling in love wear off. They can be used in just about any area of our lives, but the conscious use of any technique is a demonstration to yourself of your own self worth and splendor. It's a good thing. Whether your running a one-man show or you have a family of fifty, investing in the relationships of the people around you is one of the most valuable things one can do. It's almost as important as cultivating a deep and meaningful relationship with yourself. However you chose to view your relationships, I wish you all the best (and lots of extra blankets.)

The $67 Million dollar Pants Lawsuit

Washington, D.C. – A local administrative judge, Roy Pearson is suing a dry cleaners for losing is favorite pants for $67 million dollars.

Pearson based his damages on D.C.'s consumer protection laws at $1500 per violation per day for more than 1200 days, due to the signs in the cleaners that said "Satisfaction Guaranteed" and "Same Day Service."

Pearson also is suing for $500,000 for 'emotional damages' and $542,500 in legal fees and $15,000 for ten years worth of weekend car rentals to drive to another dry cleaners.

The civil trial is set for some-time in June.

Some people are calling Pearson insane and crazy, but Pearson IS basing his lawsuit on established law in the manner he is applying it in this case.

Editor comment; Let's apply the point here to other remedies. If an administrative judge (being possibly an attorney) in view of his case and based upon the consumer law calculates his damages to that kind of figure... then it certainly seems appropriate for others within their exclusive tort claim process for injuries caused by government agents to establish similar and in some cases higher dollar amount of monetary damages.

In the above case, the defendants attorney said the Chungs came to America for the American dream and Pearson "has made it a nightmare!"

That is nothing compared to the nightmares, beatings, mis-application of statute and fraud caused government agents all across America upon people every day! The police state is alive and well as to beatings (recent LA Riots – again, a lot nightstick beatings), and/or agencies causing destruction of property, unlawful incarcerations, misapplication of statutes, violations of due process of law, fraud, etc., to where some tort monetary damages are in excess of $67 million.

Seems more appropriate if a admin judge can do it for $67 million, then a private man can tort for the amount of his nightmare, whether damages are at X4, plus punitive, emotional damages, attorney fees (at $500.00), etc., or due to unlawful incarceration at 1.6 million per day ( ).

What's good for the goose is good for the gander!

Liberty Dollar Group Seeks Permanent Injunction against US Government

Says second most-popular currency is not violating any law

The following is a reprint of a press release issued on the Liberty Dollar website located at: <http://www.libertydollar.org/ld/legal/legalissues.htm> The Liberty Dollar has asked for help from people around the country to help support them.

EVANSVILLE , INDIANA - Liberty Dollar filed suit against the U.S. Mint on Tuesday, March 20 in U.S. District Court in Evansville Indiana. The organization - which promotes and distributes the new gold and silver currency - asked the court to declare that the use of the Liberty Dollar is not a 'federal crime,' as claimed by the U.S. Mint. And the organization further asked the court to enter a permanent injunction against the U.S. Mint requiring it to remove any reference that the use of Liberty Dollars is a federal crime from its website. The Liberty Dollar organization denies that its more than 100,000 proponents are federal outlaws. It identifies them as law-abiding citizens who "legally have made the inflation-proof Liberty Dollar America's second most-popular currency". And the organization demands that the federal government cease and desist from threatening them.

The Liberty Dollar group maintains it is protecting the right of every American to use or barter any "money" they may voluntarily agree to utilize. They point out that anybody can lawfully barter a dozen eggs for five pounds of sugar without fear of government interference, as an example. The group even quotes Andrew Williams, a spokesman for the Federal Reserve in Washington, D.C., as saying, "There is no law that says goods and services must be paid for with Federal Reserve notes. Parties entering into a transaction can establish any medium of exchange that is agreed upon."

Bernard von NotHaus, the monetary architect of the Liberty Dollar, labels the U.S. government/U.S. Mint's allegation that the use of the Liberty Dollar is criminal as completely misguided. "The Liberty Dollar organization has never claimed that its new gold and silver currency was a 'coin' or 'legal tender.' For over eight years, the Liberty Dollar has prospered from the fact that people could use any 'private voluntary currency' they chose. The Liberty Dollar organization has simply benefited from the differences between the debt-based U.S. dollar and a value-based currency." Von NotHaus concludes, "There is absolutely no violation of U.S. law."

Von NotHaus points out that the government forced the lawsuit upon itself. "We had to sue the U.S. Mint, because this unfair and illegal warning was killing the Liberty Dollar and the ideals it represents. We're a relatively small group that can't afford to be smeared by the umpteen billion US dollars of the federal government. It has seriously impacted our business"

Von NotHaus finds hope in the fates of other companies who withstood attacks from the federal government and won. "Just like FedEx, I expect the Liberty Dollar to win this suit, re-establish sound money, and have the U.S. government as its biggest customer."

subconscious mind--the ideal pace to generate deep hypnosis.

The commercials or suggestions presented following this alpha-inducing broadcast are much more likely to be accepted by the viewer. The high percentage of the viewing audience that has somnambulistic-depth ability could very well accept the suggestions as commands--as long as those commands did not ask the viewer to do something contrary to his morals, religion, or selfpreservation.

The medium for takeover is here. By the age of 16, children have spent 10,000 to 15,000 hours watching television--that is more time than they spend n school! In the average home, the TV set is on for six hours and 44 minutes per day--an increase of nine minutes from last year and three times the average rate of increase during the 1970s.

It obviously isn't getting better ... we are rapidly moving into an alpha-level world--very possibly the Orwellian world of "1984"--placid, glassy-eyed, and responding obediently to instructions.

A research project by Jacob Jacoby, a Purdue University psychologist, found that of 2,700 people tested, 90 percent misunderstood even such simple viewing fare as commercials and "Barnaby Jones." Only minutes after watching, the typical viewer missed 23 to 36 percent of the questions about what he or she had seen. Of course they did--they were going in and out of trance! If you go into a deep trance, you must be instructed to remember--otherwise you automatically forget.

I have just touched the tip of the iceberg. When you start to combine subliminal messages behind the music, subliminal visuals projected on the screen, hypnotically produced visual effects, sustained musical beats at a trance-inducing pace ... you have extremely effective brainwashing. Every hour that you spend watching the TV set you become more conditioned. And, in case you thought there was a law against any of these things, guess again. There isn't! There are a lot of powerful people who obviously prefer things exactly the way they are. Maybe they have plans for?

ORIGINAL TITLE

Submitted from www.1213.org, a law note website well worth checking out.

Only in Louisiana - you have to love this lawyer. A New Orleans lawyer sought an FHA loan for a client who lost his house in Hurricane Katrina and wanted to rebuild. He was told the loan would be granted if he could prove satisfactory title to the parcel of property being offered as collateral. The title to the property dated back to 1803, which took the Lawyer three months to track down. After sending the information to the FHA, he received the following reply: "Upon review of your letter adjoining your client's loan application, we note that the request is supported by an Abstract of Title. While we compliment the able manner in which you have prepared and presented the application, we must point out that you have only cleared title to the proposed collateral property back to 1803. Before final approval can be accorded, it will be necessary to clear the title back to its origin." Annoyed, the lawyer responded as follows: "Your letter regarding title in Case No. 189156 has been received. I note that you wish to have title extended further than the 194 years covered by the present application. I was unaware that any educated person in this country, particularly those working in the property area, would not know that Louisiana was purchased, by the U.S. from France in 1803, the year of origin identified in our application. For the edification of uninformed FHA bureaucrats, the title to the land prior to U.S. ownership was obtained from France, which had acquired it by Right of Conquest from Spain. The land came into the possession of Spain by Right of Discovery made in the year 1492 by a sea captain named Christopher Columbus, who had been granted the privilege of seeking a new route to India by the Spanish monarch, Isabella. "The good queen, Isabella, being a pious woman and almost as careful about titles as the FHA, took the precaution of securing the blessing of the Pope before she sold her jewels to finance Columbus' expedition. Now the Pope, as I 'm sure you may know, is the emissary of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and God, it is commonly accepted, created this world. Therefore, I believe it is safe to presume that God also made that part of the world called Louisiana. God, therefore, would be the owner of origin and His origins date back to before the beginning of time, the world as we know it, AND the FHA. I hope you find God's original claim to be satisfactory. Now, may we have our @$& loan?" He got the loan.

(A) The number of gun owners in the U.S. is 80,000,000. (Yes, that's 80million...)
(B) The number of accidental gun deaths per year, all age groups, is 1,500.
(C) The number of accidental deaths per gun owner is .000188.

So, statistically, doctors are approximately 9,000 times more dangerous than gun owners. Remember, "Guns don't kill people, doctors do."

Lawyer/Attorney vs. God

By, Sharon Lee; Shields
--eagleinflight

"I've avoided writing about lawyers/attorneys in hopes of something positive revealing itself; instead, time, research and experiences have reaffirmed that most with titles of lawyer/attorney nobility are a disgraceful, pathetic and parasitic class of people living on Our American soil; and like vultures, will pick us to the bone of our life, liberty, happiness and ability to sustain a living for ourselves and our families, forevermore!" —Sharon Lee; Shields

Men and Women Representing God in Admiralty

Much thought into this lesson left me feeling ashamed and embarrassed for lawyers/attorneys, because historically, culturally and currently they truly are the most disgraceful, pathetic and parasitic class of people on Our American soil, living in a class, even world of their own. Searching America's history for the term "Attorney" resulted in it being a new concept to North America, less than two-hundred years old.

However, I hit pay-dirt researching the term "Lawyer" which revealed that North America's justice (just-us) system is rooted in Royal blood and the Catholic Church, and their old rule of law, all of which Americans' have been led to believe is the natural law secured by Our Forefathers in the Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights treaties.

The justice system is secretly molded in and securely tied to the Roman Catholic Church, Britain, France, Spain and Africa's royal echelons. The ties are all about money and power. The title of nobility Lawyer ranks right under that of "Knight" and are Esquires of the Church, loyal to the Royal families who are the government(s) of the world.

In old rule Lawyers did the dirty work for the Royals and the Pope, which that dirty work was falsely condemning the poor and lower class "Citizens" of all races and cultures to prison and/or death for erroneous crimes. Where today the term 'Attorneys' do the same dirty work in what is known as 'presumptive and assumptive' Court proceedings; and, the rule of law is the opposite of what you've been brainwashed into believing: You are guilty and cannot prove yourself innocent!

North America's justice system began in Europe with transportation and shipping contracts among Britain, France, Africa and Spain's shipping cartels (Governments) all of which secured enriching the already rich, and further enslaving the slaves and indentured servants.

With so many poor and starving without hope during that time, there was a great need for cooperation among each nations Nobles' in setting and agreeing on marketable values on goods and services, along with providing safety and protection while traveling the seas and entering foreign ports, and having cooperative services available to safely remove goods from the ships and to the final destinations. This system of shipping contracts became known as "Admiralty Law." The laws of the sea had everything to do with wealth and the wealthy; and nothing to do with living breathing men, women and children!

Europe was nothing but the king and the favorites of the Court, noblemen, priests and women of easy virtue were the rulers, and people lived only to furnish them amusement and dissipation.

Law that governed the poor was nothing more than Courtly (private) rules, and the responsibility of Lawyers' to resolve in the best interest of the Crown and Church, of course! God was used to justify tyranny and genocide, and also as a deterrent from protests and possible social rebellion.

Government and church were/are really one joint super power, both rich in old rule; and if there were/are disputes Royalty prefers not to openly "eat their own" (destroy or kill the people loyal and serving them) or have the results of a social slaughter pointed at either one, all of which would be in bad taste and bad business because it could and has resulted in catastrophic losses in faith of both!

In the beginning of judicial history all the dirty work was done by Lawyers, and now its being done by the Attorneys, both having titles of nobility, all of which their dirty work was and is forgiven by the Church's God.

Throughout several reins religions and lawyers are responsible for every lunacy and genocidal event that histories have revealed. If genocide was done in the name of "God", it has to be Satan's men and women dressed in representative clothing disguised as a lawful God. No loving God would ever have been party to the numerous holocausts invoked by the lunacy of 'rulers, lawyers and religions' throughout history!

Genius writer Voltaire born in France in 1694, wrote extensively how Lawyers kept the poor in subjection, the criminal code was long, cruel and deadly. The priest, doctor and the lawyer all lived for the rich and helped make slaves of the poor. Lawyers kept the poor in their place by jails and barbarous laws.

Voltaire also revealed that there was really but one church which, of course, was ignorant, tyrannical and barbarous in the extreme. All creeds were alike, and whenever there was but one, and the rulers honestly believe in that one, they are bound to be ignorant, barbarous and cruel. All sorts of heresies were punishable by death, including witchcraft, which could be defined as any behavior out of the ordinary from the churches rule, such as making eye contact while passing a stranger on the street! Religion was not maintained by the precepts of the priest, but by Lawyers' threat of prison and the torture chamber. Everyone believed; no one questioned. The religious creeds, while strict and barbarous, did not interfere with the personal conduct of any of the Rulers. They were left free to act as they pleased, so long as they professed to believe in the prevailing faith.

Therefore, men, women and children were traded in the same manner as the cargo of animals, fruits, spices and lumber, so naturally disputes over cargo were/are addressed in Admiralty, commercial law of the sea. Their fates were and still are decided in the best interest of the owners, the Crown and now the Federal Government.

If you understand the Court processes of today nothing has changed because no man or woman can lawfully adjudicated issues before any tribunals because they still represent 'cargo' belonging to 'some power entity' perhaps in our time the private Federal Governments; and trust me: decisions are still made in the best interest of the Crown! I've disclosed in one of my past lessons that George W Bush, current president of the private federal corporation, holds 'title of nobility' from the Queen of England.

"Does anyone recall that 'titles of nobility' in North America are forbidden, treasonous and punishable by hanging in accordance with the Original Constitution of the united states of America's Thirteenth Article?"

During old rule treaties and charters were verbal, rarely written, such as the Magna Carta (which was never ratified or enacted) an agreement honored between the Nobles and Royals of each nation; and void application to infidels, indentured servants and slaves. Today, it's fruitless for truth and freedom seekers to quote the Magna Carta because it was void application for us back then; and most assuredly void application, today.

Americans' won our freedom and liberty in the Revolution of 1774-1775, evidenced in the Bill of Rights and Declaration of Independence and Original Constitution of the united states treaties, all lawful, signed treaties; but, we no more than secured those freedoms and liberties when Britain pledged 'us' in payment for its war debt with France. Yes, every man, woman and child in North America was/is pledged as chattel (surety) evidenced in the Treaty of Paris. And, we've been paying Britain's war debts ever since in the form of unlawful subjugation and taxes! And, you know by now which 'title of nobility' enforces that old rule of law onto us!

We know that no law of the land existed back then; and when the Treaty of Paris was signed, there is no such thing as lawful authority on land, now. Instead there is a complete Federal overlay government and its private in accordance with its private CONSTITUTION FOR THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, INC., an all capital letter document where in most cases the "INC." is left off.

In government representation today, including attorneys' my rule is this: If they hold any position of power such as senator, representative, legislator, judge, governor, president, etc., they are informed of and heavily invested in the federal deal, with each reaping huge financial rewards (kickbacks) from state and federal prison systems. Each one has to know and go along with the federal deals!

The "new" world North America offered settlers a glimmer of hope and freedom for those forgotten men, women and children starving and rotting on European docks, corralled like cattle waiting to be sold and then shipped.

Those in the Fifteenth century who came to North America not sporting a 'title of nobility' or representing the British Crown, Court, or Church were most assuredly indentured servants or slaves. And, 'if' they survived the trip, were strong in their belief that they would be free! The brutality, enslavement and punishment by the Church's Lawyers back in Europe were forever branded into their minds, hearts and lives.

This historic overview explains why servants and slaves belief in 'God and Government' was that of apprehension and indifference because of their blood stained memories of tyranny and genocide of their our kin by those same Churches and Royal governments Esquire Lawyers, all of which eventually infiltrated North America like a plague.

British policies covertly molded North America into England's old rule. Hierarchy, such as Nobility, the Court and the Churches are still about "classes of nobility"; and according to the old rule of law common people are not of a class. Today, tyranny and brutality aren't that blatant in the streets, but the old rule is alive and well, today!

The old rule reestablished itself among the settlers when the Churches set up housekeeping, the Lawyers set housecleaning with what is known in one instance as the "Salem Witchcraft Trials", which was nothing more than doing the dirty work of elimination and extermination of those who refused to be subjected to the old rule, again; all of which sparked the American Revolution.

After the revolution, this country was rich in resources that couldn't be overlooked. Britain's greed couldn't honor leaving us in peace, no matter what was promised or what treaties were signed! And, most assuredly Britain wasn't above dishonoring the contracts with indentured servants and slaves. So a plan immediately went into action to reestablish old rule by disguising it, all in effort to keep a stranglehold on North America and Americans!

The "titles" of their nobility went underground because they were unlawful, but the men and women born into and bound to those titles established new terms for their old titles such as "Attorney", "President", "Municipality", "Clerk", the list goes on and on; but don't ever kid yourself, each in position of power represents the Crown in Admiralty or some form of unlawful authority. There is no such things as securing a lawful due process hearing in their forums because attorneys, judges/magistrates/clerks are nothing more than officers of the British Courts; and, men and women standing before them are still nothing more than chattel, cargo! Evident in all their statutes and codes where the terms "man or woman" will not be found!

Currently when seeking counsel from an Attorney; and/or showing up in one of their cargo/chat-tel Courts you are 'presumed and assumed' guilty of violating a law in Admiralty, otherwise you wouldn't be there! You cannot prove yourself innocent because according to old rule you have already committed the crime!

Currently, there is good news on the horizon where all our peaceful and lawful efforts are reaping rewards, such as in HB 670 Introduced 2007 Session 07-0115, an act relative to repealing the incorporation of the Hew Hampshire Bar Association: STATE OF HEW HAMPSHIRE, In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Seven, "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representative in General Court convened: 1 New Hampshire Bar Association; Repeal of Incorporation; Intent. The general court finds that part II, article 83 of the New Hampshire constitution specifically enumerate free and fair competition by the people in all of their commercial endeavors. This right is to be preserved by the duty imposed on the legislature by their action to remove any monopoly or conspiracy which tends to hinder or destroy this right. The general court by this act therefore: 1. New Hampshire Bar Association as established in 1873, chapter CXV, has become a constitutionally prohibited monopoly and conspiracy of power in the practice of law."

I leave you with this on your conscience: British old rule is the current justice system in North America; and, through Attorneys and Admiralty and erroneous Courts nothing has changed except the country and faces. Each one is involved in treasonous proceedings knows exactly what they are doing. So, when you hear of another American imprisoned and/or sentenced to the death penalty know that they were sentenced according to British old rule policy, on presumption that a crime was committed! In most cases there was no truth, fact or evidence that would support a crime had been committed, at all; but most alarming death sentencing is based on presumption that they committed a crime!

The private federal government regime is both the State and Federal prison systems!

REDEMPTIONS VAULT

...Information, concepts and things:

By Terra R. Gibbs, Assistant Editor

The following is the transcript of a meeting with staff from The American's Bulletin and the celebrity of the Redemption movement; Scarecrow, the Strawman of the Emerald City. The American's Bulletin: So what do you think about our little paper here?

Scarecrow: It's quite lovely. I read it and sometimes its makes me laugh, sometimes I want to just cry, but always it stimulates my mind and that I really like.

TAB: And the article content in general?

SC: I've decided that when anybody asks me if I believe in such things as conspiracy theories I'm going to say that I believe in anything that makes life more interesting or palatable. One doesn't have to look too hard into themselves to see that we believe in many things simply because we were programmed and conditioned to. While I was in college I became aware of the awesome power of self-programming. I could trick my brain into retaining information for tests, focusing on things that I wanted to achieve or holding a feeling long enough that it actually became my reality. So having gotten a little older and wiser, wise enough to worry less about what others thought for example, I started to create my own world. I figure it works for politicians it can work for me!

TAB: (laughing) You're certainly on to something. The concept sounds really great but a person can't hide from reality. You might be able to make up your own reality, but what about the rest of the people?

Scarecrow: Everyone is making it up whether they know it or not. They make up their own opinions of the world around them and that is how they see reality. It's a relative thing. That's what Einstein was trying to say. Absolutely everything is relative to where one is standing and that doesn't have to mean literally. That is why two people can witness the same accident and see something completely different. People trust what they see, but in truth one doesn't know what it actually sees-it gets interpreted by the mind and the mind can be a tricky thing.

TAB: Did you see in the news today that the Governor of Oregon went on food stamps for one week? He has to get by on $21 worth of groceries for the whole week. He acknowledged it was a very short period of time, but he got to put him self in another's shoes, so to say and get a feel for what someone else has to go through.

Scarecrow: Sounds like a very wise governor. His brain will be the better for it, I'm sure.

TAB: I would like to see everyone in Washington try it for a month.

Scarecrow: What a delicious idea. Good luck with that!

TAB: We won't hold our breath. So what else can you tell us about our minds?

Scarecrow: Well, think of the way your brain works as a beautiful field of grass. Above the surface it grows tall with ideas and feelings. If you don't clean it up once in a while you can get lost in it, for sure. Flowers spring up, weed come, ants build their homes in the soft dirt... life is happening in this wonderful field. And beneath that there is a whole other world that we don't see. Billions of little roots grow and connect to other root structures in an interwoven menagerie of life and energy. All kinds of elements and little wiggly things live in and amongst the soil and without their presence; there wouldn't be any grass. Take a good handful and pull up some of it and everybody in the little root neighborhood knows about it. Even though each blade is it's own separate and distinct creation, like your thoughts and feelings, its all a part of a much larger whole. What's more, just like our thoughts and feelings that just seem to 'spring' up. The grass doesn't have to work to grow; it just does. Flowers don't struggle to grow; they just bask in the glory of the sun. The all loving Universe set it up that way. Pretty nifty, eh?

TAB: Nifty

Scarecrow: Now take a stretch of grass and imagine what will happen to it if you walk along the same path every day. Eventually you'll wear a trail through it down to the dirt. That's what happens to our brains when we continue to travel the trail of a particular thought pattern. Eventually that thought becomes hard wired. If we walk the trail of self berating thoughts every day, our brain will become entrained to think that way. If we plow through the grassy fields of our mind with angry, frustrated thoughts of others, our mind will allow us to imbed those thoughts as well. The problem with this is that since the roots of the mind are all interwoven, the brain does not know the difference between your yelling at the jerk that cut you off in the car next to you, or words you're yelling to yourself. Either way it sends harsh and toxic chemical strands, or peptides into your blood telling your bio-physiological self that you're a 'stupid jerk.'

TAB: Ohhh... ouch.

Scarecrow: Precisely. By now I'm sure that you have heard the studies of the effects of words on plants. Yelling, screaming and words of hate showered over a plant for a period of time will actually kill the plant. At the same time, words of encouragement and love actually increase the plants thirst for life.

TAB: That is such an amazing study.

Scarecrow: It wasn't just one actually. There were several. The ramifications of the findings took the research in a whole other direction. You see, your body acts in a similar way to stimuli and your brain behaves in ways we're just beginning to understand.

TAB: The grassy field analogy is a beautiful rendition of the brain. Thank you for that. But what about all the men and women out there facing real-life every day problems? Do you have any advice for them?

Scarecrow: During the continuing media coverage of Hurricane Rita in the Southern United States, CNN did an interview with the Dalai Lama and other world religious leaders. In this interview Larry King asked the Dalai Lama what he could say to give the people hope. His Holiness replied, "Meditate." Throughout the rest of the conversation the message from the Dalai Lama didn't change, he just kept telling the people to meditate. What the Dalai Lama knows is that meditation lowers the frequency of the mind. The lower you go the more peaceful, calm and serene you get. When you can relax your shoulders and allow the blood and oxygen to flow cleanly through the body the cells receive the food and air they need to live. You're whole body relaxes and you can think more clearly, more calmly and maintain a better sense of control.

TAB: Wow. That makes sense. But I've gotta tell ya, man. I've tried to meditate and I just can't sit still.

Scarecrow: (laughs) You're not the only one. Exercise is an important thing to all over mind/body health. Even if your just doing slow basic stretches; do something to release all those happy chemicals that exercise puts into the blood. But it's important to try to spend a few minutes sitting still every day thinking only of your breath. It's not a punishment; it's a reward. During our next meeting we can discuss what sitting quietly really does for the brain and why it works. Think of it this way; if you can't do it for yourself; do it for God. What meditation really means is prayer. You're taking a few moments to silently focus on your breath and be grateful to God for it. For the very breath that survives you. Every cell in your body responds to this. How could it not?

TAB: I've never thought of it like that. I sure hope you're willing to sit with us again and talk more about how the brain works, why prayer works and other yummy tidbits of intellectual wisdom.

Scarecrow: It would be my honor. Nothing would make me happier than unraveling every riddle for every indivible' in trouble or in doubt... (singing and whistling.)

TAB: Nice.

Scarecrow: Thanks. I couldn't resist.

TAB: Till next time, we hope you enjoyed our chat with the Scarecrow. Keeping checking back with The American's Bulletin for our candid interviews with your favorite fabled celebrities.

Scarecrow: Hey, I'm not a fable-

TAB: Shhhh...

Scarecrow: Humph.

TAB: So till our next issue remember to take a few moments every day to just sit with yourself and relax. Breathe...

Scarecrow: Yes, the brain likes air. Breathe.

TAB: And a special thanks to our distinguished guest. Thank you so much for meeting with us.

Scarecrow: You are so welcome. It's been a real treat. Bye, bye now.

HAVE YOU HEARD OF 'REDEMPTION' AND THE STRAW-MAN ?

Meet Your Corporate Fiction/Debtor:

An Micro-Introduction

By Robert Kelly – The American's Bulletin

The Problem - The American people have been and are right now, the unknowing victim of an ingenious diabolical conspiracy of untold ramifications. Aside from the fact that Abraham Lincoln declared 'Martial Law' in 1861 and took over the government and congress as Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of the United States, the United States Federal government bifurcated itself in the late 1800's, incorporated itself and created a new constitution. The planned agenda reached near-completion by the United States Federal government failing to pay the war debt to England, declared BANKRUPTCY in 1933.

The gold backing the Nations money was unlawfully called in by Roosevelt. That act altered the substance of all contracts, stopping people from obtaining lawful title to all their property, fixed or tangible. In 1965, then President Johnson, after President Kennedy was assassinated by his own agents, signed the Coinage act of 1965, altering the coinage act of 1792 for the first time, changing the definition of what constitutes a dollar. In 1977, pursuant to Fidelity Bank Guarantee vs. Henwood, 307 U.S. 847 (1939); holds that 31 USC 5118 was enacted to remedy the specific evil of tying debt to any particular currency or requiring payment in a greater number of dollars than promised. Since October of 1977, there can be no requirement of repayment in legal tender either, since legal tender was not loaned and repayment need only be made in equivalent kind: A negotiable instrument representing credit.

In light of the US declared Bankruptcy, all State governors 'pledged' all the property of the people to the 'States' in support of the 'economic' National Emergency, and as such; all property ownership is in the hands of the state via the United States Federal Corporation, whereby the people are compelled to pay a 'USE' tax... to use the property belonging to the State. Consisting of; property tax, car registration, permit fees, license fees, etc. The state has "legal title" to all property while we have only an "equitable interest" in what we think we own, and that only on our "good behavior" as long as we give tribute ('use' taxes) to the State, they will leave us alone to enjoy life and what we perceive as "liberty". All property in America belongs to the state, just as stated in the Communist Manifesto regarding property ownership in the States.

You do not own the 'property', you RENT it from the State! Don't think so? Put the lawful 'Title' of your property on the table! Can't do it... cause you do not possess them! Even your children are declared 'Wards of the State' which means 'property' of the State! The State can take away your children and your other property away if you do not behave as the good little debtor you are.

The Constitution has no bearing on the people, and does not operate upon the people. (Padleford vs. City of Savanna – 1854 – Georgia State Supreme Court) "... the people are not a party to it."

Due to the US bankruptcy, in order to continue 'economically', U.S., Inc. created 'corporate fictions' via the Birth Certificates. The straw-man/DEBTOR name appears in ALL CAPS; i.e., 'JOHN B. DOE'. Look at the SS card, the driver license, the check book, the court documents, etc. The government does not deal with the so-called 'sovereign people'. The creature (government fiction) cannot communicate to its Creator (the people). So the government had to create these millions of 'corporate fictions' so as to tax and collect the revenue in all its creative ways... everything but the air you breathe!

The government, in creating the "Straw-man/DEBTOR", assigned 'it' a Social Security Number and presumes that we have unknowingly agreed (contracted) to be the surety (co-signer) for it/him. The 'SSN' is the 'UCC Contract Account Number' held with in the U.S. Treasury. There are two sides of the account, the 'public' side and 'Private' side.

The government (city, county, state or fed) deals only with the 'Straw-man/DEBTOR for any fines, fees, taxes, debts, judgments, etc. If your DEBTOR is fined, you have to pay the 'Straw-man's' fine. Remember, it's a 'corporate fiction', an 'Ens legis'! (Look it up in Black's Law Dictionary!)

All your bills, taxes, etc., (presentments) come to our Straw-man/DEBTOR in its all capital lettered "corporate trade-name" which appears exactly like your real name. "JOHN B. DOE" (the fiction) is not the same in law as "John Billy Doe" (the flesh & blood man).

The Straw-man/DEBTOR works for the State, controlled by the State and is taxed by the State for its 'corporate activity', because it was created by the government! It has "standing-in-law" because it is a 'FICTION', it can sue and be sued, just look at the name on the summons or the complaint.

The DEBTOR is also a trust registered under IRS Trust #62 in Puerto Rico, doing business in Guam, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, etc., and the IRS 'IMF' file designates the 'corporate activity' assigned for the purpose of imposing (laying) the 'income tax'! You are deemed the 'surety' (financial supporter) of your 'corporate entity' and responsible for what it does, with or without our consent... but YOU ARE NOT IN CONTROL OF IT!

Vanessa Fimbres - Investigative Reporter/Americans Bulletin

On February 23rd through the 25th, 2007, hundreds of 9/11 activists gathered in Chandler, Arizona for the "9/11 Accountability Conference", and I was fortunate to have had the honor to be one of them. The goal was to seek strategies and solutions to demand accountability for the crimes of 9/11. The overwhelming evidence of government complicity and ideas for obtaining justice were presented by 50 key note speakers, Pilots, Fire fighters, people who were personally in the twin towers at the time of the implosion, dozens of researchers, Military Officers, authors, film makers and organizers. The World Trade Center and the Pentagon has been the stated reason for declaring war and for stripping Americans of many of our freedoms. So it is important for all of us to understand clearly what happened. So lets start here and investigate the events of 9/11 and what it means for America. 9/11 is not what we've all been told. It was not a terrorist strike against this country, at least not outside terrorists. 9/11 was an inside job. First of all there would be no war in Iraq or Afghanistan, there would be no Patriot Act 1 or 2, there would be no suspension of our Habeas Corpus and many of our freedoms would not be in jeopardy if it wasn't for 9/11. So instead of getting wrapped up in the emotions of the whole scenario we need to focus on the 'why's', the problem-reaction-solution game plan of the whole thing. We need to look at the facts. Our freedoms were not under attack from Saddam, our freedoms are not under attack from outside terrorists. Our freedoms are under attack from Dick Cheney. Our freedoms are under attack from Donald Rumsfeld and our freedoms aren't even understood by George W. Bush. This war is about money, oil and raw imperial power. Over 31 hundred American lives have been sacrificed and this war has drug on longer than WWII and still there has been no accountability as to how this war was started. Search and Rescue team from the Federal Emergency Management Agency was sent to New York City to assist with the tragedy of 9/11 BEFORE the planes struck the World Trade Center. FEMA clearly knew in advance that the attack was coming. Lets begin with the destruction of the world trade center buildings, specifically building WTC7. The evidence here is unequivocal and undeniable. The people that were there that day heard and saw explosions. And those buildings were brought down by those explosions, the buildings were brought down by controlled demolition. The evidence of controlled demolition is most evident in the implosion of World Trade Center building 7. Most people aren't even aware there was a third building that went down that afternoon. A 47 story, steel framed, high rise building, which came down at 5:20 in the afternoon in a perfect controlled demolition. "I remember getting a call from the fire department commander, telling me they weren't sure if they were going to be able to contain the fire. I said, you know we've had such terrible loss of life, maybe the smartest thing to do is to pull it. And they made that decision, to pull. And then we watched the building collapse." Larry Silverstein. The owner of World Trade Center building 7, the lease holder on the entire world trade center complex, made 7 billion dollars in insurance on the collapse of the towers and world trade center 7 and he is telling us here that he authorized the controlled demolition of that building. Larry Silverstein, owner of the World trade Center Complex, six weeks prior to 9/11 insured his buildings for 3.2 billion dollars through a 99 year lease on the entire complex. Included in the lease is a 3.5 billion dollar insurance policy, specifically including and covering "Acts of terrorism". The complex was facing bankruptcy previously. Now there are 2 problems with this story, the first problem is that "Fire" cannot bring down a steel framed high rise. Fire does not melt steel. No steel framed building in the history of our architecture has ever fallen because of fire.

The second problem with Larry Silverstein's story is in order to set up for a controlled demolition, it takes weeks of planning. It's not something that can be done in one afternoon, especially not in the midst of the chaos of 9/11. There is no way that the explosives that brought down building 7 could have been placed that day, they had to have been already there. Large numbers of case files for ongoing Corporate fraud investigations by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) were destroyed in the collapse of WTC7. The Los Angeles Times reported that "substantial files were destroyed for 3000-4000 of the SEC's cases, including all files pertaining to ENRON'S $70 billion electricity swindle in California. Building 7 was hit by nothing and still collapsed.

Dr. James Fetzer confirms that the melting point of steel is 2800 degrees Fahrenheit. Jet fuel fire, the highest degree possible would be 1800 degrees Fahrenheit, if its fed pure oxygen. Which means there's a 1000 degree gap between the heat from the fires in the buildings that were caused by the plane crashes, to the melting point of steel. So the steel did not melt. In addition, underwriters Laboratory have certified the steel for up to 6 hours at 2000 degrees temperature before it would even significantly weaken. Not only were these temperatures not hot enough to reach

2000 degrees they were relatively brief in duration. The South tower fell in less than an hour, the north tower in about an hour and a half. Which means the steel not only did not melt, it did not even significantly weaken. These specific buildings were designed to withstand the impact of airplane crashes. 707's were the largest commercial airliners at the time that they were built, between 1966 and 1970. But the 767's that hit the buildings are very similar in their mass and configuration.

Frank DiMartini was the project manager for the world trade center, remarked that the makeup of these buildings which largely dependant on the 47 steel core columns that went up through the entire structure were so sophisticated that the impact of a plane or multiple planes would be like putting tips of pencils through mosquito netting. So evidently the planes didn't cause the problem. And the melting of the steel didn't cause the problem. And the weakening of the steel didn't cause the problem. There were billowing black clouds of smoke which are indicative of an oxygen starved fire wherein the temperature was actually no where near 1800 but closer to around 500 degrees Fahrenheit, much too cool to effect these buildings, yet we have two towers collapsing abruptly, completely, symmetrically straight down.

No steel building in the history of architecture has ever fallen due to fire, not one. There have been 1000's of fires, 7200 steel high rise fires in 2002 alone, not one of them fell from the fire. And many of those fires were enormous fires encompassing multiple entire floors and burning for, in some cases days. And yet not one of those buildings collapsed, fell, or dropped. On the other hand there have been many buildings that have fallen into their own foot print, and all of those buildings were brought down by controlled demolition. There's an astonishing silence on the engineering profession, they wanted to know more about, wanted to keep the steel for investigations, but instead the steel was shipped off for recycling to China within a couple days. Even fire fighters were protesting as to the procedure used in getting rid of the evidence i.e. the steel of the complex, Controlled Demolition Incorporated was cleaning it all up and shipping it all off in blatant violation of all the policies and procedures of the laws that govern these things. All the steel needed to be subjected to Forensic Analysis to determine the actual cause. It has been speculated that the possible source in way of type of explosives used to bring down the towers was a variation of Thermite called THERMATE as well as other HDX and RDX forms of high explosives. What most Americans are also oblivious too is that the World Trade Centers underwent very peculiar security anomalies in the couple of weeks before 9/11 where major portions of the building were shut off at different times and employees were told not to come in and access was granted to groups of workers called engineers on the pretext that

This is a very interesting point: The Outfit who managed the security for the buildings (twin towers), United Airlines and Dulace Airport, an outfit called Securicom, which just happens to have one of its board of directors named "Marvin Bush", the brother of George W. Bush, quite the coincidence.

When the buildings came down there was a huge cloud of dust and debris flowing out from the bottom of the buildings. The dust eventually covered Manhattan from river to river and in some places it was many inches deep. And at the base of the towers there was very little concrete left, practically no intact concrete to be found. You have 210 story office buildings, you don't find a desk, you don't find a chair, you don't find a telephone, a computer. The biggest piece of a telephone that was found was 1/2 of a key pad and it was about 2 inches big, the rest was turned to dust and powder. The concrete was pulverized. And besides that, lets remember that there was no plane ever found that hit the Pentagon, no bodies, no seats, no wings of the plane, no evidence that a plane

Anthrax Attacks, Inside Threat, Inside Job

Vanessa Fimbres - Investigative Reporter/Americans Bulletin --

1) The anthrax attacks targeted the US Democrat Senators who opposed Ashcroft's Patriot Act: October 2, 2001 (B): The "anti-terrorism" Patriot Act is introduced in Congress, but is not well received by all.  [PatriotAct, 10/2/01] One day later, Senate Majority Leader and future anthrax target Tom Daschle (D) says he doubts the Senate will take up this bill in the one week timetable the administration wants. As head of the Senate, Daschle has great power to block or slow passage of the bill. Attorney General Ashcroft accuses Senate Democrats of dragging their feet. [Washington Post, 10/3/01] On October 4, Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman and future anthrax target Patrick Leahy (D) accuses the Bush administration of reneging on an agreement on the anti-terrorist bill. Leahy is in a key position to block or slow the bill. Some warn that "lawmakers are overlooking constitutional flaws in their rush to meet the administration's timetable." Two days later, Ashcroft complains about "the rather slow pace 'over his request for law enforcement powers' Hard feelings remain." [Washington Post, 10/4/01] The anthrax letters to Daschle and Leahy are sent out on October 9 and difficulties in passing the Act continue (see October 9, 2001).

2) The anthrax was from a US Army or defense contractor site, and the killer a trained scientist from the US (illegal) bioweapons program. "This suggests that the anthrax was already in hand, and the attack largely planned, before Sept 11." Federation of American Scientists

3) The anthrax disruption of Congress allowed the US PatriotAct to pass without it even being read! "It's my understanding the bill wasn't printed before the vote - at least I couldn't get it. They played all kinds of games, kept the House in session all night, and it was a very complicated bill. Maybe a handful of staffers actually read it, but the bill definitely was not available to members before the vote."

4) Woolsey, Perle and Wolfowitz used anthrax from Iraq as a reason to attack Iraq. Perle supported the Anthrax-Iraq theory in the Daily Telegraph. But he (Perle) made clear that he believed there were "substantial and growing indications" that a state was behind the attacks. The milled, "weaponised" anthrax that virtually shut down Congress and killed two postal workers has increased his suspicions. What they neglected to mention was that the state behind the attacks was the United States of America.

5) There are only a handful of people it could be, as the anthrax was weaponized by the US procedure. There is one main suspect that has not even been questioned by the FBI. Perhaps he knows too much, or is an Asset.

6) This may not be the first time anthrax has been used to silence critics. Russell Welch, an investigator for the Arkansas State Police who had been trying to blow the whistle a dozen years ago on the massive CIA cocaine smuggling operation in Mena, Arkansas. Russell Welch was exposed to weaponized anthrax over a decade ago when he opened a letter, and his life was saved only after prompt diagnosis by his doctor. Later his doctor's office was burglarized, and test results and correspondence with

Center for Disease Control officials in Atlanta were stolen.

7) Now that we know that the state that was behind the attacks was the United States, there is a

By Anthrax. The US Congress and McMedia say nothing about the fact that the anthrax attacks were an InsideJob. The rest of the world says nothing, not even about the violation of the 1972 biological weapons treaty which categorically bans even the possession of weaponized stocks.

There was only one good line in the BBC story (albeit inadvertently): Or perhaps it points the finger at terrorists who are now regrouping and waiting for the next chance to strike. Inadvertently, because the terrorists are in the American military, and they're not "waiting"; see WhatsNext.

Whats Next ?

What's next? That's a good question, as we have no reason to believe that they will stop at the Fake Terror of 9/11, and the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq.

Due to 9/11 all the airlines stock fell.

News Week reported that a number of top Pentagon officials cancelled their flight plans for the next morning, September 11, 2001.

When something like this happens you have to think well who stands to benefit, who had the opportunity and motive, who had the equipment and the will. This all benefited and worked in favor for the Bush Administration.

h"A state of war only serves as an excuse for domestic tyranny" Alexander Solzhen

Do the people know how they are controlled? Do they understand the systems of power that surround them? The modern propaganda machine of public relations that wash their brains and fill their minds full of ball games and mindless fluff. Is the population beginning to realize that governments throughout history have used a specter of fear to drive their populations into aquiescing to total tyranny?

September 11th, National ID Card, Big Brother, The Iraq War, the 77 Bombings in London, The Invasion of Iran, how are they all interconnected?

September 11th, was the foundational event the pretext for the current GEO Political Structure. Governments use fear to control you.

The fact of government sponsored terror is not debated but in fact openly admitted to by western governments. There are literally hundreds of examples of government sponsored terrorism in modern history or what are known as "False Flag Operations".

5 past examples:
1933 Hitler storms to power
1953 CIA Coup in Iran: Operation Ajax
1964 Gulf of Tonkin Pretext
1967 USS Liberty Attacked
1946-1983 NATO's Stay- behind armies: Operation Gladio

What is a 'False Flag', the encyclopedia definition reads: Definition: Covert Operations conducted by governments, corporations, or other organizations which are designed to appear as though they were carried out by other entities.

The name is derived from a military concept of flying false colors, that is flying the flag of a country other than your own. There are many variances of False Flag operations but one of the most popular carried out by governments is to stage a terror attack or horrible criminal incident and then blame it on your political enemies. This has been done for hundreds and hundreds of years.

Who pulls the strings, who benefits from this modern warfare?

One of the best known cases of a False Flag Op., was carried out by the newly elected Adolph Hitler on February 27th, 1933. Nazi documents uncovered at the end of WWII as well as at the Nerinburg trials revealed what many historians already suspected. That Herman Goring, a leading member of the Nazi Party coordinated and started the fire burning the Reichstag, the German Parliament building. The Nazi's then produced there Patsy, Marinis Vanderlubbe, an extremely mentally handicapped young man. Vanderlubbe was then taken before a Nazi show trial, found guilty and sentenced to death. He was beheaded on January 10, 1934.

Using the crisis he created to pass the laws similar to the U.S. PATRIOT ACT, Hiltler became dictator and set his sights on the world. Hitler used the Reichstagg fire to pass laws enabling him to seize total control of Germany and begin expansion. By March of 1939 Hitler had already seized Czechoslovakia. Having gained both Austria and Czechoslovakia, Hitler desired to move East against Polland. But he did not want to look like the aggressor. Hitler needed an excuse for attacking Polland. It was Heinrich Himmler who came up with a plan, thus the Operation was code named: Operation Himmler. On the night of August 31, 1939, the Germans took an unknown prisoner from one of the concentration camps, dressed him in a Polish uniform and took him to the town of Gleiwitz on the German Polish border and then shot him. The staged scene of the dead prisoner dressed in a polish uniform was supposed to appear as a Polish attack against the German radio station. The Germans radioed German News papers and News Reels were flooded with images of what appeared to be a dead polish soldier who had dared to attack Gleiwitz. Now Hitler had his excuse to invade Polland and the night mare of WWII had begun.

Representative Virgil Goode (Republican from Virginia) has introduced a bill (H. Con. Res. 40) to put Congress on record as being “against a North American Union”. But that is not enough!

110th CONGRESS
1st Session
H. CON. RES. 40

Expressing the sense of Congress that the United States should not engage in the construction of a North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) Superhighway System or enter into a North American Union with Mexico and Canada.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
January 22, 2007

Mr. GOODE (for himself, Mr. WAMP, Mr. JONES of North Carolina, Mr. PAUL, Mr. STEARNS, Mr. DUNCAN, and Ms. FOXX) submitted the following concurrent resolution ; which was referred to the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, and in addition to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the Jurisdiction of the committee concerned

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress that the United States should not engage in the construction of a North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) Superhighway System or enter into a North American Union with Mexico and Canada.

Whereas the United States Departments of State, Commerce, and Homeland Security participated in the formation of the Security and Prosperity Partnership (SPP) on March 23, 2005, representing a tri-lateral agreement between the United States, Canada, and Mexico designed, among other things, to facilitate common regulatory schemes between these countries; Whereas reports issued by the SPP indicate that it has implemented regulatory changes Whereas the actions taken by the SPP to coordinate border security by eliminating obstacles to migration between Mexico and the United States actually makes the United States-Mexico border less secure because Mexico is the primary source country of illegal immigrants into the United States; Whereas according to the Department of Commerce, United States trade deficits with Mexico and Canada have significantly increased since the implementation of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA); Whereas the economic and physical security of the United States is impaired by the potential loss of control of its borders attendant to the full operation of NAFTA and the SPP; Whereas the regulatory and border security changes implemented and proposed by the SPP violate and threaten United States sovereignty; Whereas a NAFTA Superhighway System from the west coast of Mexico through the United States and into Canada has been suggested as part of a North American Union to facilitate trade between the SPP countries; Whereas the State of Texas has already begun planning of the Trans-Texas Corridor, a major multi-modal transportation project beginning at the United States-Mexico border, which would serve as an initial section of a NAFTA Superhighway System; Whereas it could be particularly difficult for Americans to collect insurance from Mexican companies which employ Mexican drivers involved in accidents in the United States, which would likely increase the insurance rates for American drivers; Whereas future unrestricted foreign trucking into the United States can pose a safety hazard due to inadequate maintenance and inspection, and can act collaterally as a conduit for the entry into the United States of illegal drugs, illegal human smuggling, and terrorist activities; and Whereas a NAFTA Superhighway System would likely include funds from foreign consortiums and be controlled by foreign management, which threatens the sovereignty of the United States: Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That- (1) the United States should not engage in the construction of a North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) Superhighway System; (2) the United States should not allow the Security and Prosperity Partnership (SPP) to implement further regulations that would create a North American Union with Mexico and Canada; and (3) the President of the United States should indicate strong opposition to these acts or any other proposals that threaten the sovereignty of the United States. Security, and border security functions and that the SPP will continue to do so in the future.

AGENTS OF CONFUSION

BY: Gregory John McGrath

For ten years now I have read many an authority, from the patriot for profit clan. Among these noted verbose know it all's are such as the likes of LARRY BECRAFT. LARRY'S an attorney who from the beginning of the REDEMPTION MOVEMENT, has made it his goal to confuse those amongst us who are seeking understanding as to remove ourselves from the denial of due process judicial movement, where those who have gained the Security Interest, are left scratching the back of our heads saying unto ourselves, this redemption stuff just doesn't work either.

In this writers understanding BECRAFT is not really worth constructive criticism. The guys a lawyer, a servant of the court, and no reasoning beyond that is needed, at least for those of us who know how the sellout works. (Back to lawyers later.)

Let me digress here for a short span, and critique a THIRTYYEAR VET, in the redemption for profit game. This profiteering patriot has given the bold seeking true freedom loving individual every reason to reject the idea that a remedy may be found in this arena. How may you ask is this feat accomplished??? Well, through dead ended adventurous know it all proclamations of course!!!

Back in the sixteen hundreds, MAYOR AMSHAL ROTHSCHILD stated, "If you assume the trapping of authority, soon those you exert that authority over, will surrender it to you." So, one know it all, given a web site, some followers, some other know nothings for profit, and in no time you're a leader. Just publish a writ that smells like fact and guess what?

Dear Lord, what have I seen in just ten short years. Several having their game apprehended by the police state, one resorting to the victim for profit out game, committing suicide, others going beyond the limits of reason, proclaiming themselves to be banks. Finding only prison or death as their reward. These include those who wrote the REDEMPTION MANUALS CCI,CCII,CCIII. (Cracking the Code) However, our thirty year vet is still going strong, Back in 2000 a friend at a meet gave me a ten page read on REDEMPTION. It was titled JACKS LATEST. Jack then just twenty years into the game for profit, placed in thesis, followed by BECRAFT in anti-thesis. "FLAWED REDEMPTION PROCESS," Giving the synthesis of confusion for any well orchestrated government trappings. The one thing that today still resounds in my memory, is that our great teachers never based their all seeing knowledge on any real facts, that maybe crossed referenced with any remedies provided by law for those who are located if you will out of the FEDERAL ZONE.

Back in, oh around 98, while reading the "ANTISHYSTER" this writer came upon a very startling revelation. For the first time in this quest for understanding, 4 USC 105-110, an act known as THE BUCK ACT. Here is found the true clause for TAXATION. The real power and plastic over-lay for usurping every person natural or otherwise to reside in the FEDERAL ZONE. There are several FEDERAL and STATE corporation statues that include both FEDERAL CITIZENRY, STATE CITIZENRY, as the same under law. However, to determine if you are an American Citizen of a state, you just need to read the new Secured Transactions Laws. 409.307 §§i, 2, of Wisconsin Laws, or UCC 1-307, of FEDERAL LAWS. These reveal that if the "DEBTOR" does not RESIDE with its PRINCIPAL, then it RESIDES in the DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. Reading down a bit further, we find that the DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, is located where we find the UNITED STATES.

In 2001 Mr. Smith presents this article on Appearance, telling all that because they call your "ens Legis" or CAPITAL LETTER NAME, that you need not respond, and should make a stink over the spelling. However, several fell to that know it all information, and the theory went by the way-side as many others realize, who wants to volunteer for a stint in jail??? That thesis lead several into traverse a dishonor against the bankruptcy.

Then a year latter in 02, this great agent of confusion publishes through "right way law" or as BECRAFT says WRONGWAY LAW, "ITS BACK: APPEARANCE WITHOUT APPEARANCE!" IN THIS FIVE PAGE TREATISE, only once was it noted, a single reference to any law showing a substantive conclusion of law. UCC 1-207, a point of law, where you reserve your rights under law, when doing any business with an agent of government, or corporation figure, forcing you into an adhesion contract.

Which has little under law, to do with appearance. However, what does relate to appearance is, do you have a "SECURITY INTEREST." If you do, and it is RECORDED in a proper legal manor, and your appearance is SPECIAL APPEARANCE, in SURI JURIS, Why SURI JURIS, because it means "of ones own right." As a US citizen, your obligation is under 4 USC 105-110, and are subjects of the US GOVERNMENT. Regardless of what state you are located. The difference here, is, Secure Transaction, UCC 9. Perfection by control as found in Wisconsin Statutes 409.314, 315, 316, 317. The recorded instrument, returns to the principal, it's debtor, and rights of freehold. Now if in a court setting and you place your Security Interest into the record, and attempt to defend that Interest, by your UCC filings which, without exemption, perfect that Interest, and the MAGISTRATE, violates that SECURITY INTEREST, by over looking or disregarding that Security Interest, then that court has Traversed the Law and has challenged the courts competency. As all courts in this nation, are bound to the rule of law, as part of their free ride on any US CITIZEN. So yes your appearance does matter, but only as a Secured Party, Creditor, holding a Security Interest in freehold, as a HOLDER IN DUE COURSE.

Of course there is more law one must understand than is found in this writing. However, the just of the fact is your Security Interest. 403.302 (3) Except to the extent that a transferor or predecessor in interest has rights as a holder in due course, a person does not acquire rights of a holder in due course of an instrument taken in any of the following ways: (a) "By legal process ..."

A look at the Wisconsin Law, found under the Supreme Court Rules, or Judges Bench Book. SCR 60.04 @ 1. (g) "A judge shall accord to every person who has a legal interest..." Having a legal interest is only granted to those who RECORD, not register their security interest. Registering grants to government what is termed under law as REM or Quasi in REM Jurisdiction, by which according to 28USC grants contract rights to the government, transferring such jurisdiction, including Persona. Now to JACKS APPEARANCE in court with a lawyer. In the Americans Bulletin NOV-DEC 2006, Mr. SMITH, acting as an agent of confusion, advising that a lawyer, who has taken an oath first to serve the court, will bring you honor and make you a creditor. You acquire honor, by not violating the BANKRUPTCY LAWS of the UNITED STATES, period.

What are the requirements for honor? Easy; do not traverse. To traverse is to dishonor, when a Magistrate, or Judge, attempts to coheres an attorney upon a Creditor, what in fact is taking place, is an attempt to lawfully view you as an infant or incompetent.. Wisconsin Constitution, Article 1. Section 19 states, Rights of suitors Section (2), "In any court of this state, any suitor may prosecute or defend his suit either in his own proper person or by attorney..." "Every person has an absolute right to appear pro se." And further, states that only a lawyer can file and defend or prosecute for a corporation. No dishonor here, its not against the bankruptcy, no traverse. Now being a creditor as presented above. File a RECORD for public inspection, have a "Security Agreement, Power of Attorney," know how to present an "Averment" against Corporate servitude, and know in your heart of hearts that you are a Secured Party Creditor, then watch as the judicial system dishonors, and traverses all over you. (Remember, bankrupt nations only right is to wage war) During a court appearance, when this happens, the "Collateral Order Doctrine" comes into play. As a holder in due course, you hold the Supreme claim to the instrument and "take it free." UCC 403.306 "Claims to an instrument. A person taking an instrument, other than a person having rights of a holder in due course, is subject to a claim of a property or possessory right in the instrument or its proceeds, including a claim to rescind a negotiation and to recover the instrument or its proceeds. A person having rights of a holder in due course takes free of the claim to the instrument."

The "Collateral Order Doctrine" is engaged when a court, refuses to take Mandatory Judicial Notice of all the Material Facts, presented during the Kangaroo proceeding. Instant Habeas Corpus, your not a US national you have right.

Depending on what goes on here, Slander of Title, Fraudulent Transfer of Title, Misconduct in Office, double jeopardy if "Accepted for Value" just about any RICO claim you can insert.

Study to show they self worthy unto God, rightly dividing the word of truth. Let the agents of confusion lead other blind followers into the pit.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

"All that government does and provides legitimately is in pursuit of its duty to provide protection for private rights, which duty is a debt owed to its creator, WE THE PEOPLE, (Wynhammer v. People, NY 378) ... and the private unenfranchised individual; which debt and duty is never extinguished Nor discharged, and is perpetual. No matter what the government/state provides for us in manner of convenience and safety, the unenfranchised individual owes nothing to the government." (Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43)

"But indeed, no private person has a right to complain, by suit in Court, on the ground of a breach of the Constitution. The Constitution, it is true, is a compact (contract), but he is not a party to it. The States are a party to it..." (emphasis added)

Masons Symbols Part II

By Tara Gibbs

Thank you very much Merri for contributing this article. The Mason's sure do get around, but this is nothing new. We're not shocked to see the dedication plaques on government buildings because the government is under Grand Masonic rule. Countless books and movies have been written about them, the Illuminati and the actual structure of the corporation of The United States. What is surprising is where some of these plaques show up outside of government buildings. This first picture is taken in the park in China Town located in San Francisco. It is marking the site of the first public school in California in 1847.

We have another picture taken at the top of a very remote summit called Pilot's Butte in Wyoming, which is Federal land. It was commemorating a ritual held there September 1941. The real mystery is what in the world were they doing up there?!? The plaques are laid all over as first began the practice by George Washington in 1793. There is no point to the argument of separating church and state without first observing that there was no separation of government officials from cult religions. The two are interwoven and rightfully so. This is not our government. The people's government passed away quietly in its sleep and hardly anyone noticed when this imposter was slipped in its place. What we see now is a bad mockery of what was originally planned for us. It's a mutated machine that has run amuck and as all ill-maintained machinery does; it will soon exhaust itself and die. May it go gently to the great geopolitical heaven in the sky and may all who love it be comforted and given peace. Maybe after the memorial, there will be cookies and refreshments served.

So are we ready for the real irony? Maybe 20 paces away from the Masonic school plaque in China Town, stands a statue of the Goddess of Democracy. Don't know about you but I didn't even know that there was a Goddess of Democracy. She stands in the same park facing to the center (whereas the mason monument was facing out) looking to the people and with both hands she holds a torch high over her head. She looks like a combination of Crouching Tiger meets Greek Athena and her plaque beautifully reads (translated from Chinese of course):

"Goddess of Democracy. Dedicated to those who strive for and cherish human rights and Democracy. A gift to the City of San Francisco from the San Francisco Goddess of Democracy Statue Project (1989-1990)." All we can say is "You Go Girl!"

Who woulda thunk. We're assuming that this babe is on our side guiding all of our readers and friends who care so deeply for our nation and our world. She reminded me of the Statue of Liberty and as luck would have it, I stumbled upon the articles below. After reading this I am profoundly aware of the most beautiful power a woman has; her will. Just in case we are all referring to the same Goddess, let us all pray that the feminine of the Divine has a heart for the Underdog!

To take it a step farther we would be remiss to not show the granddaddy of all Masonic symbols... Located on www.freemasonrywatch.org written by Neo. (Great name by way, wherever did you pick it up?)

THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

The Statue of Liberty in New York harbor was presented in 1884 as a gift from the French Grand Orient Temple Masons to the Masons of America in celebration of the centenary of the first Masonic Republic. She is holding the Masonic "Torch of Enlightenment". Also referred to back in the 1700's by the Illuminati Masons as the "Flaming Torch of Reason". The Torch represents the "Sun" in the sky. The Statue of Liberty's official title is, "Liberty Enlightening the World". The cornerstone of the statue records show it was laid in a Masonic ceremony.

THE TORCH SYMBOL

Illuminati means to "bare light" one way to symbolize this is by carrying a torch. A torch sits on top of the Statue of Liberty, on top of JFK's grave, and on top of the tunnel where Princess Diana was killed. Best selling author, Robert Bauval: "The cornerstone for the Statue of Liberty was placed in a solemn ceremony in 1884 organized by the Masonic lodges of New York. The Statue of Liberty, which was designed by the French sculptor Bartholdi and actually built by the French Engineer, Gustave Eiffel (both well-known Freemasons), was not originally a 'Statue of Liberty' at all, but first planned by Bartholdi for the opening of the Suez Canal in Egypt in 1867.

Bartholdi, like many French Freemasons of his time, was deeply steeped in 'Egyptian' rituals, and it has often been said that he conceived the original ogy is very interesting. The original statue of Bartholdi destined first for Port Said at the mouth of the Suez Canal, was also to bear a torch intended to symbolize 'the Orient showing the way'. The 'Grand Orient', of course, is the name of the French Masonic mother lodge, and to which Bartholdi belonged. There is another similar 'torch' that played a strange role in the French Revolution, but of which I will reveal later in my forthcoming book "Talisman". It still is to be seen in the skyline of Paris today.

People today do not realize the power of such symbolism, and how they can be used with devastating effect on the minds of the unsuspecting masses. And this is worrying. The SS Nazi movement made prolific use of all these 'symbol games', and wreaked havoc in the world." Well, thank you Neo and Mr. Bauval. It's always good to know.

'Redemption'

cepts back into his Kingdom into everlasting life.

The Redemption Process/ Program was reinforced and presented similarity within the 'MATRIX' movies, especially the first movie. See it again for the first time!

Public/Commercial Venue; due to the U.S. Bankruptcy, POINTS to consider; 1) All lawful 'constitutional' money has been removed or taken away. 2) Therein; YOU have been estopped in 'paying your debts at law' and have NOT PAID for anything since 1933. 3) Therein; YOU have never possessed lawful 'TITLE' to any property you think you own. 4) YOU are compelled to perform to 'private corporate codes & statutes' with attached 'monetary' penalty to 'fund' government at every level. Consider it another form of a tax! 5) YOUR status has been altered to Debtor/Slave on the federal or state Plantation and you are treated as such, in some cases very 'civilly', in others, very disrespectful...treated like dirt! 6) If you cannot be free (free will) and in control of what is yours, it's called 'slavery' or 'involuntary servitude'; 'Pay the fine, fee or tax or go to jail!' 7) Every thing operates on a case by case basis and there is no guarantee - sorry, but that's the reality!

Back to the solution. REDEMPTION; You now 'redeem' back to you and take control of the Debtor, the collateral and the all the property, via the process! As principal, you have redeemed that which is yours, came from you or bears your name, or your name appears on it, etc. The 'corporate fiction/DEBTOR is now under your control.

Through the documents created and the UCC's file, you will have 'public & private Notice of who the 'Creditor' is (You!) and you will have established 'Superior Security Interest and Lien on all the property'... over and above everyone including the 'State' (as they are a fiction and being bankrupt have no standing and remains a debtor to the people).

Via the UCC, aside from the 'Superior Security Interest and Lien on all the property', your 'Birth Certificate' (a federal monetary instrument sold in the international market-place) is accepted for value for a certain 'dollar' amount and then is 'charged back' to the UCC Contract Trust Account to charge-up the account for the discharge of debt.

Now as the SECURED PARTY and CREDITOR (SPC), being the private banker, when you now receive 'Presentments' in behalf of your Debtor, you will learn to 'Accept them for Value' and 'discharge' the fine, fee, tax, debt, judgment, etc., ...because THERE IS NO MONEY!

SPC's (secured party/creditors) under necessity have and are discharging DEBTS; including but not limited to mortgages, car loan contracts, federal school loans, taxes, etc., due to the fraud and breach of so-called government of the 'Supreme law of the Land' and causing the bankruptcy to place you into a status and condition of economic servitude and otherwise.

However, do not expect the 'agent' of these de-facto bankrupt military government agencies and offices (and companies and major corporations) to understand and roll out the red carpet as they see you come in to discharge any 'debt' contracted or otherwise, including the courts!

Many times 'they' will go into DISHONOR, causing commercial fraud and INJURY therein giving you right to exercise YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY via TORT CLAIM for their commercial fraud and dishonor in not adjusting the 'account' upon tender of the 'instrument' as payment. (See 2nd paragraph above!)

The 'SPC' can utilize 'Conditional Acceptance for Value' (CAV), a private process of resolution of issues and problems (it's based upon scriptural concepts) and works every time! The conclusion of that can be sent in to notice even the courts that there is no controversy, no crime, no liability to the statute, etc.

If there is ANY dishonor or injury done to you or your 'property' or your CAFV 'agreement' by say, a prosecutor (for a court matter) or a judge ie; 'disregarded', your remedy is a Tort Claim! Not using those 'foreign courts'!

The process of Redemption is done under necessity due to the bankruptcy, for a lawful and legal restoration of our inherent status, Rights and claim to PROPERTY under the bankruptcy. If not, then you will remain the Debtor/Slave (on the Plantation)... forever under the thumb and control of a 'Ceasar'! Is that what you want?

The above is a 'micro' introduction to a little known life-changing course of action that can liberate you from government duplicity, their fraud and the bankruptcy. As of yet, no one in government has officially stated that 'Redemption' is in error, wrong, criminal or otherwise. The State of Oregon's Consumer Fraud Division had the opportunity to do so, per review of a 'Redemption Manual' 5+ years ago. They reneged on their agreement to give a 'legal opinion' on any criminality of redemption.

The most current book on Redemption is called; THE REDEMPTION MANUAL 4TH EDITION (RDM4)... 655 pages, in binder form and comes with a CD with the particular forms and 30 plus other educational files. RDM4 is $115.00 - shipping included. Payment via Postal Money Order... ordered from; The American's Bulletin P.O. Box 3096, Central Point, Oregon 97502. Allow 4 weeks plus for delivery - shipped Priority Mail w/ Delivery Confirmation.

Consultation and review of filing paperwork is available at $75.00 an hour... a couple questions answered at no cost. You may call Robert Kelly at 541-779-7709...to make an appointment. A subscription to 'The American's Bulletin' is required before any consultation or service work done.

The American's Bulletin (TAB) is 'Rights' orientated 'Newspaper', published continually for 25+ years within the 'Freedom Movement' and is the ONLY newspaper to publish information and articles on Redemption. TAB also advertises other books and materials for the SPC! One year subscription is $40, published every two months. Foreign subscriptions are $60 a year.

The Redemption Companion is a compilation of articles published in TAB between May 1999 and December 2001 and contains over 99 articles on every facet and aspect of Redemption and lays a very good foundation of Redemption including 'success stories'! $45 - shipping included.

There's more to learn... this is the beginning. Exercise your free will. Step out on faith. Become all that you were intended to be... free, the Secured Party Creditor/private banker and take control... if you don't... the government will and has... as your MASTER!

FOCUS

Ernie “ Lastmanout“ Romanco

Focus, focus, focus, we’ve all been told many times in life to direct our full attention onto a particular subject or matter. And so we do, for a test, or perhaps for a goal we then seek. We ignore all the other things, sort of, and focus on only one. Trusting this increased effort will bring the result we are after. The question then is what are you now focusing on in your life. Or does it even have a primary focus that benefits who you are. Most have no real focus and so randomly focus on many things. For as long as they can hold their attention or provide a stimulus. And here in that focus is where their thought energy is placed Think about that for just a minute, where you focus your thoughts. Now, this is not about your effort of purposely focusing thoughts. But about how / where you ‘let’ your thoughts be focused for you. And when you do so, where all that energy you generated winds up. If you do not choose where your energy goes, it is of no benefit to you. Ever stop to wonder why most of you watch the news every night. Is there ever anything good on the news, or mostly only negativity. Is there anything there you think you can change, or even try to. Crime, death, accidents, storm damage, and politicians lying to us. You all feel the fear for yourself, and concern for those around you. And in doing so, passively, every time, give up your energy to them. You worry about your job, taxes, the war, and your energy goes there. You have given all these things you are conditioned to see, all of it. And so, they continue to exist with even more energy and so hold you. Knowing, you cannot create positive energy when you are so in fear. You read the papers, while you know the news is so biased and false. Or do you search in them for only what you wish to be true for you. Yet each word and article you read affects how you choose to live. Tell me, after listening to the TV or radio news or reading the paper. How many times do you feel better about the world or even yourself. I can see you thinking, “I never thought about it but that seems right”. And then saying “ But what am I to so about it, I am only one person”. My friend, thoughts of only one person have so often changed the world. Thoughts have immense power, and those who steal them know this. They don’t want you to know, you, yes you, can change the entire planet. Ask yourself a question about the recent terrible storms across our nation. We are “warned” by the media of what is going to happen and does happen. And so we are conditioned to just accept we cannot control the weather. Yet weather control has been a proven fact by even UN documents for years. But instead of helping us with it, they take the energy of our pain and fear. To help maintain the world they wish us to see, the one we are keeping alive. Now, think about this. What if, instead of hearing on the news about the storm. And how to “bat-ten down the hatches” we heard a different type of announcement. “There is a storm coming, a big one, and if not stopped will bring great destruction. Over the entire southwest, southeast and up the entire east coast of the country. Since there all millions of you involved, we want you to send thoughts to stop it.” Slowly now, let that sink in. MILLIONS of you all sending positive energy out. In thoughts and prayers all directed at the same thing. And sending out the thoughts. Not in fear, but in the absolute knowing of the power within you to do this thing. Do you think, that storm, or anything else with so much positive energy directed at it could possibly survive to be any kind of danger for long. Of course not. Opps, I forgot, you don’t know you have that power within you, you’ve forgotten. You’ve wasted your focus too long on what is wrong in the world each day. Letting your energy feed it instead of starving it to death, or killing it with love. How many actually focus on all good things all around them, seeking to see them. How many say “This wrongness shall not be“ and then send their love to change it. Do you see, you can change all things with thoughts if you become aware you can. Yet if you see only the fear, the wrong things, the pain and accept that of the world. You will change nothing and give your power away to those who use it against you. Be the change you wish to see, be the love you wish to see, be the joy you wish to see. In changing us, we change all things, it is a choice each must make every moment. Focus...Focus...Focus...and be the Love, the Joy, the Peace, the Compassion you are It is time.....

have stumbled upon the Mena Arkansas airport drug operation. A controversial case, the initial report of death said, due to falling asleep on railroad tracks. Laer reports claim the two boys had been slain before being placed on the tracks. Many linked to the case died before their testimony could come before a Grand Jury. THE FOLLOWING PERSONS HAD INFORMATION ON THE IVES/HENRY CASE: 28 - Keith Coney - Died when his motorcycle slammed into the back of a truck, July 1988. 29 - Keith McMaskle - Died stabbed 113 times, Nov, 1988 (PROBABLY ALSO A SUICIDE) 30 - Gregory Collins - Died from a gunshot wound Jan uary 1989. 31 - Jeff Rhodes - He was shot, mutilated and found burned in a trash dump in April 1989. 33 - James Milan - Found decapitated. However, the Coroner ruled his death was due to “natural causes.”( THAT MAY ALSO HAVE BEEN A SUICIDE) 34 - Jordan Kettleeson - Was found shot to death in the front seat of his pickup truck in June 1990.

35 - Richard Winters - A suspect in the Ives / Henry deaths. He was killed in a set-up robbery July 1989. THE FOLLOWING CLINTON BODYGUARDS ARE DEAD: 36 - Major William S. Barkley Jr. 37 - Captain Scott J. Reynolds 38 - Sgt. Brian Hanley 39 - Sgt. Tim Sabel 40 - Major General William Robertson 41 - Col. William Densberger 42 - Col. Robert Kelly 43 - Spec. Gary Rhodes 44 - Steve Willis 45 - Robert Williams 46 - Conway LeBleu 47 - Todd McKeehan (So much for CAREERS IN GOVERNMENT!)

This is a quite an impressive list! People need to be aware of what happens to anyone who might damage the Clinton machine! AFTER HAVING READ THIS LIST, IT MIGHT BE MORE DANGEROUS (NOT TO VOTE) FOR THE SWEETHEART. Question; How’s the list stacking up under George Bush?

At the signing of Coinage Act on July 23, 1965, Lyndon B. Johnson stated in his press Release that:

“When I have signed this bill before me, we will have made the first fundamental change in our coinage in 173 Years. The Coinage Act of 1965 supercedes the Act of 1792. And that Act had the title: An Act Establishing a Mint and Regulating the Coinage of the United States...” “Now I will sign this bill to make the first change in our coinage system since the 18th Century. To those members of Congress, who are here on this historic occasion, I want to assure you that in making this change from the 18th Century we have no idea of returning to it.”

Stress cause of all illness?

Many scientists now believe that mental and emotional stress (continuous worries, doubts and fears, or living with anxiety, compromise, bad relationships, hopelessness, lack of self confidence and loneliness, etc.) can play a major role in suppressing our immune function, a leading factor in health breakdowns.

Worldwide health care practitioners are advocating stress reduction. Dr. Coldwell takes it a step further and addresses the root cause of the stress. By eliminating the root cause of stress, the immune system is boosted resulting in among other things an unbelievable energy boost.

RIFE FREQUENCY GENERATOR

Frequency Generators have had success in treating and eliminating dis-ease, parasites, allergies, toxins, tumors, bacterial infections and an array of other health concerns. Thousands of frequencies are available to treat the least to the most extraordinary issues. Updates and new frequencies being found have no limit in the research arena. The RPG-900 is of the advanced technology of its original inventor, Royal Rife, who's laboratory was destroyed by the federal government back in the 40's. But his research was saved and his life-enhancing 'frequency generators' continued to be manufactured with the most advanced electronic technology today in the current model utilizing that research as found in the RPG-900. State of the Art home treatment for a wide application of health issues has never been easier.

We have electrical energy in our body, not just static electricity but amps and volts. There are many chemical reactions inside our bodies. We now know that electricity causes chemical reactions, and electricity causes stimulation to different cells. Every cell in our body has a membrane, in which there is an electrical charge. Electrical vibrations can weaken viruses or bacteria so the body's immune system can attack them. In the 1930's, the great scientific genius Royal Rife discovered that all life forms vibrate at different frequencies. For example, the viral form of Herpes vibrates at a different frequency than Malaria. These frequencies are measurable and can be programmed into software in the form of binary numbers. The same way sound waves can break windows, can be used to explode or implode different cells. The louder the sound the more intense the frequencies. This is the same principle when working with the Rife machine. After calibrating the Rife Machine, you can use the programming technique to challenge your body with over 4,000 stimuli. (destroy harmful virus and bacteria!) When new and/or different frequencies prove to be effective the Rife Machine can be reprogrammed. The RPG-900 Frequency Generator uses programs that contain certain frequencies. Every frequency does something different. The RPG-900 Frequency Generator will never become obsolete as new frequencies are identified because it can be reprogrammed any number of times through a computer by means of a special cable that plugs into the rear of the instrument.

STOP THE PAIN!

Ancient Technique for a Modern World

By Lucky Mike

You and I were given a priceless gift over 5,000 years ago. The brilliant people of that era discovered, and mapped, the subtle energies that course throughout the body. The result is known as acupuncture, and today, this technology has advanced and changed to fit our times and progressed to what we call EFT. Emotional Freedom Technique. Acupuncture without needles.

We are on the ground floor of a Healing High Rise.

EFT is based on the discovery that imbalances in the body's energy system have profound effects on one's personal psychology. Correcting these imbalances, which is done by tapping on certain body locations, often leads to rapid remedies. By rapid, I mean, many of the problems vanish in minutes!!!

This course does not purport to teach you every intricacy regarding these discoveries. Instead, we provide a simple, highly workable version for everyday life. EFT is, by far, the most fascinating, most rewarding, most effective tool I have ever found for personal improvement. It lives up to its name and does indeed, provide freedom from negative emotions.

"The cause of all negative emotions is a disruption in the body's energy system." Gary Craig, Founder of EFT.

This is a radically new discovery and requires thinking outside the normal boundaries to be truly appreciated. Please note that the emotional and energetic releases brought about by EFT frequently result in profound physical healings.

EFT is remarkably simple to apply.

Using only 9 points on the body, (The Code), you will tap on these with all 5 fingers of one hand.

1. Take either hand and put the ends of all your fingers together. (The 4 fingers form semi-circle around the thumb.) Note: for people with long fingernails, you may have to omit the thumb and/or little finger.

2. Customize an affirmation that aims at your problem. Even though I have this , I deeply and completely love and accept myself. The blank is filled in with a brief description of the problem you want to address. Here are some examples: **Even though I have this headache, I deeply and completely love and accept myself.* **Even though I have this fear of public speaking, I deeply and completely love and accept myself.* **Even though I have this anger towards my father, I deeply and completely love and accept myself.*

This affirmation is repeated at each point of The Code.

Some interesting points about the affirmation...

**It doesn't matter whether you believe the affirmation or not ... just say it.

**It is better to say it with feeling and emphasis, but saying it routinely will usually do the job. **It is best to say it out loud, but if that is not possible, you may prefer to mutter it under your breath .... or do it silently.

3. The 9 points of The Code:

1. KC. Karate Chop. Located in the middle of the fleshy part on the outside of the hand, between the wrist bone and the base of the baby finger.
2. EB. Eye Brow. The inside edge of your eyebrow, just above and to one side of your nose.
3. SE. Side of Eye. The bone on the side of your eye socket.

4. UE. Under Eye. The bone at the bottom of your eye socket, about 2 cm below your pupil.

5. UN. Under Nose. Between the base of your nose and your upper lip.

6. CH. Chin. In the groove between the point of your chin and your lower lip.

7. CB. Collar Bone. To locate this point, first place your forefinger on the U-shaped notch at the top of the breastbone (about where a man would knot his tie). From the bottom of the U, move your forefinger down 2 cm, and then go to the left (or right) 2 cm. This point is abbreviated CB for Collarbone even though it is not on the collarbone (or clavicle) per se.

8. UA. Under Arm. On the side of your body, at a point even with the nipple (for men), or in the middle of the bra strap (for women). It is about 10 cm below the armpit.

9. TH. The Top of your Head at the crown.

Tapping tips:

**You can tap with either hand.

**Tap with the fingertips.

**Tap solidly but never so hard as to hurt yourself. **Take a deep breath before and after each round.

**Tap about 7 to 15 times on each of the points. Most of the tapping points exist on either side of the body, so it doesn't matter which side you use, nor does it matter if you switch sides at any time. (Try both sides at once!) **Sometimes your problem will simply vanish after only one round, while at other times, one round provides only partial relief. When this happens, you will need to do additional rounds. (I recommend three rounds for each problem. This takes less than 3 minutes). After this, if your problem still persists, then the subsequent rounds need to be adjusted slightly for best results. Here's the adjusted format for the affirmation: **Even* though I still have some of this remaining, I deeply and completely love and accept myself.

Notes:

**Each energy meridian has two end points. For our purposes, you need only tap on one end to balance out any disruptions that may exist in it.

**This easy process can be used, with persistence, to literally re-engineer your system. It will unload the pain, fears, anger, grief, depression and other negative emotions. **Be sure to make a mental note of your intensity level before you begin, for the pain or emotion. This provides a benchmark for your progress. Then, reassess the intensity after each round tapping. (Inserting The Code). **Do as many rounds as necessary. On occasions the problem does not seem to go immediately, but will often dissipate over the course of a few hours. **When EFT requires persistence it is NOT because of the intensity or resident length of a problem. It is usually because of its complexity. Complexity to EFT means the existence of several aspects to a problem, each of which must be dealt with before total relief is felt. If this is the case with you, then I recommend using EFT on a daily basis. Finding the time is easy when you break it up into segments. E.g. On waking in the morning, each trip to the bathroom, getting in and out of your car, after a meal, in the shower ... the opportunities are endless and the benefits staggering. If you only have one minute to spare, then do just one round!

**Different aspects are possible with just about any problem you want to address with EFT. Sometimes they take the form of a series of traumatic memories and each of those memories may be a separate problem, or aspect, and needs to be addressed individually before complete relief is obtained. Please understand that where several aspects of an emotional problem are present, you may not notice any relief until all aspects are reduced to 0.

**Chronic pain is usually the result of an emotional imbalance. Therefore, if you do not have 100% relief after inserting The Code with the basic affirmation, or the adjustment, then start to look for an emotional reason. For example:

If the pain in your neck was bought about by an auto accident, do you feel anger towards the other driver? If so, set up the affirmation as follows: Even though I have this anger, I deeply and completely love and accept myself.

While tapping in The Code, be sure to focus your thoughts on the accident and the resulting anger.

Could your lower back pain be due to stress of a failed promotion at work?

Even though I have this stress, I deeply and completely love and accept myself.

As you become familiar with this technique, begin to get creative. How does not getting the promotion make you feel? Inferior, passed over, incompetent, angry, dejected...

so incorporate this into your affirmation and prepare to be amazed!

Even though I feel inferior because I didn't get the promotion, I deeply and completely love and accept myself anyway.

**If you are taking any medication, be sure to do a couple of rounds to address its impact on your body. Even though my body reacts to this medication, I deeply and completely love and accept myself

Although you can generate impressive results with EFT, you must recognize that you are just beginning. EFT is capable of far more than you are learning in this booklet. Sometimes you may have to become a detective in order to dig deep enough to find the source of your problem. I wish you the freedom to express love easily and walk upon this planet with grace and confidence.

rain of terror and torture then commenced. The operation was seen by Western Intelligence Agencies as a huge success. The CIA then successfully used the exact same technique in scores of countries to overthrow elected governments and dictators alike.

Operation Gladio was an umbrella name for hundreds of bombings carried out by western intelligence agencies and NATO in Italy, Western Europe, the Middle East, Latin America and Aisia. From 1947 until 1981, Italian Presidents have gone public admitting Operation Gladio, targeted innocent civilians and was to be blamed on leftists and communists. On November 22,1990 the European Parliament had a resolution condemning the activities of Operation Gladio. The former Italian Intelligence Chief has come clean concerning Gladios actions as well. Many other countries have dclassified documents concerning Gladio, it is part of the public record that our government and other western governments targeted: trains, buses, schools, several times operatives zeroed in on school buses. Knowing that images of dead children would get the population hopping mad and ready to relinquish their liberties. A particularly bloody bombing at the central station of Alonia Italy on the morning of August 2, 1980 which killed 85 people and wounded more then 200 caused some Italian Officials to brake their silence and begin to expose a small part of this wicked operation.

The Gulf of Tonkin incident. In the summer of 1964 President Lyndon B. Johnson needed a pretext to commit the American People to the already expanding cobort war in south east Asia . In November of 2001 the LBJ Presidential Library and Museum released taps of phone conversations with the president and then Defense Secretary Robert Macnamara, where they openly discussed where the plan to use the staged Gulf of Tonkin incident as a pretext to expand the war. Then in late 2005 the National Security Agency declassified its own official history of the Gulf of Tonkin and admitted that intelligence agency officers had deliberately scued the intelligence and claimed that Vietnamese Patroll Boats had attacked US Destroyers on August 4,1964, when in reality they had done nothing even while being fired on by US forces. Congress then authorized the Gulf of Tonkin resolution. The Tonkin lie paved the way for fifty-eight thousand American deaths and over a million and a half dead Vietnamese. On October 6, 1976 two time bombs made of C4 were planted on a Douglas DC8 aircraft exploded killing all 73 passenger’s aboard in the most deadly act of airline terrorism in the Western hemisphere until September eleventh 2001. the plane was carrying Olympic Athletes from 3 different countries, including gold medal winners from Cuba. Declassified FBI and CIA documents show that the convicted bombers of the flight had been given US visa’s just days before the attack and they were in the employ of US Government, the CIA.

In the Early 1960’s the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, L.L. Limnitzer ,concocted a plan for false flag operations as a pretext to invade Cuba and for war with the Soviet Union. In Operations North Woods they planned to high-jack jets by remote control, crash them and blame the attack on Cuba. There were many other terrorist attacks they planned to carry out that were contained within the document. One scenario mentioned was the destruction of the US Naval vessel that was to be blamed on a foreign power as a pretext for war with any enemy they picked. President Lyndon B. Johnson went operational with North Woods on June 8,1967 during the 6 day war. During the 6 day war between Isreal and the Arab nations, the USS Liberty was sent by Johnson to collect electronic intelligence in the Eastern Mediteranian. The clearly marked US Intelligence ship was 14 miles off the coast of Isreal in International waters. Israelly surveillance aircraft flew low over the ship and clearly identified it as an American vessel. At 2PM that afternoon the USS Liberty was attacked by 3, Mirage 3 fighter bombers. From the onset of the attack the fighter bombers were jamming US signals. Not only were they jamming US signals specifically, they were also unmarked. The only unmarked aircraft in Israels arsenal. The fighter bombers struck the ship with cannons, dropped conventional ammunitions, napalm and white phosferous on the ship repeatedly from stem to stern. The USS Liberty was then attacked by 3 Israely Torpedo boats baring Israelly flags. The torpedo boats open fired with high powered machine guns and launched torpedos. A single torpedo struck the ship blowing a hole in both sides leaving a 30 ft. exit hole where it exploded. The attack on the Liberty ship went on hour after hour after hour. During the entire attack the USS Liberty continually called the 6 Fleet that was nearby begging for air-support or rescue. Two aircraft carriers had responded by launching fighter aircraft, unbeliebably they were recalled by the White House. Admiral Geiss, then Commander of the 6th Fleet personally called the White House to confirm the recall order. Secretary of Defense, Matnamara came on the line and then president Johnson himself told Geiss, “I want that godamn ship going to the bottom. No help recall the wings.” Imagine being Admiral Geiss begging the president to allow you to defend an American ship that’s under attack and being told by him that he wants the ship going to the bottom. Forty years after the attack on the USS Liberty, we know exactly what happened. President Johnson had personal control over the ship, parked it in the Mediteanean, made a backroom deal with Israel to attack it and kill all on board. Then the attack was to be blamed on Egypt and the US would enter the war and take over the entire Middle East. In the aftermath of the attack, on the most highly decorated ship, in US history the captain and his entire crew were told they would spend life in prison or be killed if they told anyone what happened.

Now that we’ve looked at a couple past samples of government sponsored terrorism, lets take a look at the 77 bombings in London. Prime Minister Tony Blair leader of the Labor Party was facing an uphill battle in parliamentary elections. National polls showed that his pro-war party was sure to lose. Then right on time the bombings of 7-7 and 7-21 occurred. Within days of the bombings evidence began to emerge indicating western intelligence agency involvement.

THE UNMISTAKABLE TYRANNY PROJECT

This project aims to reconcile the difference between what our Congressman, US Senators, US Presidents, history books, and media commentators over the first 150 years or more of our Nations history have said regarding the meaning of the Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution versus what U.S. Federal Judges are now claiming. Is this Amendment conferring an individual Right to the People, or is it granting a “collective right” to the States and NO RIGHTS whatsoever to the People possess Arms? Please contribute to this project by writing ALL the U.S. Senators and Congressmen from your Sate and ask them this question:
I need to know if you understand that the Second Amendment to the U. S. Constitution confers an Individual Right to the People to possess Arms or Firearms as individuals, or do you believe that this Amendment is only about a “collective right” granted to the States?

Please send their reply letter, or a GOOD QUALITY COPY (preferably color) to: David Somerville, c/o P.O. Box 940, Worthington, OH 43085

Your reply will be used as evidence to resolve this question. Anyone who already has letter from a U.S. Congressman or a U.S. Senator which clearly states that the Second Amendment confers an Individual Right to the People is urgently requested to send a GOOD QUALITY COPY of that letter to the address above. Please do your part to contribute to this project to restore the Rights granted to the People. Your efforts benefit all the People. Thank you for your Patriotism.

Massacre at Virginia Tech

This special report was filmed in the hours after the Virginia Tech massacre and covers the early details that were known about the shooting. Alex discusses the inexplicable two hour gap between the first shootings and the warnings to students as well as the slow and cowardly police response.

Alex exposes how the event will be used as justification for more gun control and re-traces evidence in previous mass shooting cases where the perpetrators were uniformly on SSRI drugs, had been involved in bizarre government mind control programs along with other evidence that many of these incidents are staged black-ops.

Mesloh said the killer performed like a trained professional, “He had a 60% fatality rate with handguns - that’s unheard of given 9 millimeters don’t kill people instantly,” said Mesloh, stating that the handguns Cho used were designed for “plinking at cans,” not executing human beings.

Cho was certainly no slouch, in the two hour gap between the first reported shootings and the wider rampage that would occur later in the morning, during which time the University completely failed to warn the students despite having loudspeakers stationed throughout the campus, Cho had time to film a confession video, transfer it to his computer, burn it onto a DVD, package it up, travel to the post office, post the package, and travel back to his dorm room to retrieve his guns and then travel back to the opposite end of the campus to resume the killing spree. The almost inconceivable speed of Cho’s actions become more suspicious when we recall initial reports that there were two shooters.

Why are the deeper reasons behind what motivates young men to kill pushed aside while control freaks demand that law-abiding citizens be disarmed of the only thing that can protect them from such madmen? Questions about the sequence of events on Monday, VA Tech, as well as the profile of the killer are arousing increased suspicion. We have been receiving numerous calls and e mails alerting us to the fact that VA Tech is pulling links from its website concerning their relationship with the CIA. Reports from November 2005 confirm that the CIA was active in operating recruitment programs based out of VA Tech. Several professors from VA Tech are involved in government programs linked with NASA and other agencies.

Wikipedia also pulled a bizarre recently taken photograph of Cho wearing a U.S. Marines uniform. Such details only fan the flames of accusations that Cho could have been a Manchurian Candidate, a mind-controlled assassin. The CIA’s program to create mind-controlled assassins that could be triggered by code words, MK ULTRA, is not a conspiracy theory, it’s a historical fact documented by declassified government files and Senate hearings. President Bill Clinton himself had to apologize for the program before he left office.

On the Senate floor in 1977, Senator Ted Kennedy said, “The Deputy Director of the CIA revealed that over thirty universities and institutions were involved in an ‘extensive testing and experimentation’ program which included covert drug tests on unwitting citizens ‘at all social levels, high and low, native Americans and foreign.” One such victim of these experiments was Cathy O’Brien, who immediately after the shootings re-iterated the revelations in her latest book, that Blacksburg Virginia is a central location for mind control programs that are still ongoing today.

CIA mind control programs can be tracked back to the 1950’s and Project BLUEBIRD, later renamed ARTICHOKE. From blogger Kurt Nimmo;

“BLUEBIRD was approved by the CIA director on April 20, 1950. In August 1951, the Project was renamed ARTICHOKE. BLUEBIRD and ARTICHOKE included a great deal of work on the creation of amnesia, hypnotic couriers, and the Manchurian Candidate,” writes Colin A. Ross, MD. “ARTICHOKE documents prove that hypnotic couriers functioned effectively in real-life simulations conducted by the CIA in the early 1950’s. The degree to which such individuals were used in actual operations is still classified.... BLUEBIRD and ARTICHOKE were administered in a compartmented fashion. The details of the programs were kept secret even form other personnel within the CIA.... The BLUEBIRD/ARTICHOKE materials establish conclusively that full Manchurian Candidates were created and tested successfully by physicians with TOP SECRET clearance from the CIA.... As well as being potential couriers and infiltration agents, the subjects could function in effect as hypnotically controlled cameras. They could enter a room or building, memorize materials quickly, leave the building, and then be amnesic for the entire episode. The memorized material could then be retrieved by a handler using a previously implanted code or signal, without the amnesia being disturbed. Hypnosis was not the mind control doctors’ only method for creation of controlled amnesia, however. Drugs, magnetic fields, sound waves, sleep deprivation, solitary confinement, and many other methods were studied under BLUEBIRD and ARTHICHOKE.” Researchers into supposed “lone nut” assassinations time and time again run across evidence pointing to CIA mind control experimentation. The best example is Sirhan Sirhan, Bobby Kennedy’s assassin. Sirhan was found to be in a completely trance-like state after pulling the trigger and couldn’t even remember shooting Kennedy when asked about the incident days later. Sirhan’s lawyer, Lawrence Teeter, has presented convincing evidence that Sirhan was under mind control.

Either way you cut it, Seung-Hui Cho was a victim of brainwashing and mind control. The right questions are not being asked and the finger of blame is being pointed in the wrong direction, ensuring that another tragedy like the VA Tech Massacre is almost guaranteed.

Credit Card Company Loses Case

Tired of being told Credit Cards are illegal and never seeing a court case to back up the claim? Now there are two of them.

Both of them were won in the Arizona State Superior Court of Maricopa County in 2006 regarding the illegal usage of Credit Cards.

It is important to understand that both cases were won because the Conditional Acceptance Remedy for Credit Cards had been done properly and the defendants remained in honor.

The banks in both these cases defaulted and refused to remain in honor, thus by their silence accepted the terms of the Conditional Acceptance Remedy Contracts presented to them as well as creating a nice judgment. Because the banks refused to answer as to the supposed legality of their Credit Cards or the creation of the supposed debts, procrastinating going to court for almost a year, the court ruled there was no debt and the banks had to fix the bad credit reports as well. The case in question dealt with three credit cards totaling supposed debt of $135,000. When the judge ruled in favor of our position, and demanded a re-ruling of the case.

The judge last November, due to the bank's attorneys basically having a temper tantrum, the Judge gave bank another 10 days to come up with the evidence that would allow him to change his mind. The bank never produced any documentation of any kind to counter the ruling, they failed to produce the original promissory note or validate from the banks auditing books that any assets were lost due to the credit card usage. In other words the bank never lost one red cent, they did however make huge amounts of money from monetizing the credit card! So don't feel too sorry for these Credit Card Corporations at all.

Now you can get a copy of the pertinent documents on this case. 128 pages from verified complaint to the Order dated 11/27/06 ... Only $39.00 – Shipping included! Payment by Postal Money Order only;

JFK Murder Plot “Deathbed Confession” Aired On National Radio

Former CIA agent, Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt names the men who killed Kennedy

Prison Planet
By Paul Joseph Watson

The “deathbed confession” audio tape in which former CIA agent and Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt admits he was approached to be part of a CIA assassination team to kill JFK was aired this weekend - an astounding development that has gone completely ignored by the establishment media.

Saint John Hunt, son of E. Howard Hunt, appeared on the nationally syndicated Coast to Coast AM radio show on Saturday night to discuss the revelations contained in the tape.

Hunt said that his father had mailed cassette the tape to him alone in January 2004 and asked that it be released after his death. The tape was originally 20 minutes long but was edited down to four and a half minutes for the Coast to Coast broadcast. Hunt promises that the whole tape will be uploaded soon at his website .

E. Howard Hunt names numerous individuals with both direct and indirect CIA connections as having played a role in the assassination of Kennedy, while describing himself as a “bench warmer” in the plot. Saint John Hunt agreed that the use of this term indicates that Hunt was willing to play a larger role in the murder conspiracy had he been required.

Hunt alleges on the tape that then Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was involved in the planning of the assassination and in the cover-up, stating that LBJ, “Had an almost maniacal urge to become president, he regarded JFK as an obstacle to achieving that.”

Asked if his father followed the conspiracy theories into the Kennedy assassination, Saint John said the elder Hunt did follow the work of AJ Weberman, a New York freelance writer, who in the early 70’s first accused Hunt of being one of three bums who were arrested in Dealy Plaza. The so-called bums were interrogated and later released by authorities shortly after the assassination. Weberman, one of the founders of the Youth International Party, the Vippies, published photographs of the tramps and found that two of them bore striking similarities to Hunt and Frank Sturgis , also named by Hunt in the tape as having been played a role in the assassination conspiracy.

Asked for his opinion as to whether his father was indeed one of the Dealy Plaza tramps, Saint John, in a stunning revelation, said one of the tramps indeed looked much like his father did in 1963.

Saint John Hunt said that shortly before his death, his father had felt “deeply conflicted and deeply remorseful” that he didn’t blow the whistle on the plot at the time and prevent the assassination, but that everyone in the government hated Kennedy and wanted him gone in one way or another. Kennedy’s promise to “shatter the CIA into a thousand pieces and scatter the remnants to the wind” was being carried out and this infuriated almost everyone at the agency.

Hunt also said that his mother’s death in a December 8, 1972 plane crash in Chicago was suspicious and that there was evidence of a White House cover-up surrounding the circumstances of the alleged accident.

Investigators discovered $10,000 dollars in her luggage and Hunt alleged that his mother traveled around the country using Nixon campaign money to payoff the families of the Watergate burglars to keep them quiet about the involvement of the Nixon White House in the Watergate break-in and cover-up.

Hunt cited numerous coincidences surrounding the aftermath of the crash, including Nixon’s appointment of his henchman, Egil Krough, to the National Transportation Safety Board which investigates plane crashes, the very day after the incident.

Eyewitnesses reported that the plane exploded above treetop level before it had even hit the runway.

Hunt said that “at least 20-25 FBI members,” as well as numerous DIA agents were at the scene of the crash within minutes before rescue personnel had even arrived, and that this fact was attested to in a letter sent by the head of the Chicago FBI to investigator Sherman Skolnick.

Hunt said that his safety was guaranteed by the dissemination of the tape and that he had several copies and had mailed others to addresses both abroad and in the U.S.

“Once this information is out there’s really no point in anyone trying to do me in or do me wrong - someone may try to discredit me but I have no skeletons in my closet,” said Hunt.

As we have previously reported, the night before the Kennedy assassination, Lyndon Baines Johnson met with Dallas tycoons, FBI moguls and organized crime kingpins - emerging from the conference to tell his mistress Madeleine Duncan Brown that “those SOB’s” would never embarrass him again. Though Brown first went public on her 21-year relationship with Johnson in the early 80’s, to this day her shocking revelations about how he had told her the Kennedy’s “would never embarrass me again” the night before the assassination are often ignored by the media who prefer to keep the debate focused on issues which can’t definitively be proven either way (or at least can be spun and whitewashed).

In addition, Barr McClellan, father of former White House press secretary Scott McClellan and a partner in the Austin law firm that represented Johnson, wrote in his 2003 book that LBJ was a key player in the organization of the assassination and its cover-up. McClellan’s revelations were the subject of a subsequent History Channel documentary called The Guilty Men .

PRISONER SUBSCRIPTION POLICY

The American's Bulletin will establish a subscription for any incarcerated 'person' at any county, State, or federal facility! However, we must ask you to help cover the expenses, even though you are incarcerated. We require that you mail in 18 - .39 cent stamps (or any combination) to cover each issue/ publication. If your 'Bulletin' comes back, your 'sub' will be placed on hold, until further contact by you, with new address. Either the 'prisoner' or his/her family may mail stamps, or remit the full payment of $40.00 for a 6 issue -1 year prisoner subscription. We need communication from you as to change of address, status, release, etc. Prison subscriptions ends on release. TAKE NOTICE - Some prisoners have been denied the 'Bulletin' because it has been tagged 'CONTRABAND,' and/ or that "this newsletter disrupts order of facility!" Yes, Truth, facts and law could do just that! Are Prisons violating the First Amendment? NOTE; Special programs, free book offers, etc. do not apply to those who are incarcerated, due to the bare costs of a prisoner subscription and the additional costs that we would have to expend. Our prayer is this 'paper' will help bring you awareness, knowledge, hope and encouragement, and a remedy and that someday you'll be released.

SORRY, WE CANNOT SEND 'FREE' SAMPLE COPIES TO THOSE WHO ARE INCARCERATED- PLEASE SEND STAMPS!

NOTE; As it applies to some prisoners who can only have a government check sent in to order books and materials, those checks are accepted at the 'Bulletin' for book orders! Please have those checks made out to The American's Bulletin. Thank you!

P.S. DO NOT STICK OR GLUE 'POSTAGE STAMPS' TO PAPER SHEET THAT CANNOT BE REMOVED AND USED!

You might like this definition of stop.

A lawyer runs a stop sign and gets pulled over by a Sheriff’s Deputy.

The lawyer thinks that he is smarter than the deputy because he’s sure that he has a better education. He decides to prove this to himself and have some fun at the deputies expense.
Deputy says, “License and registration, Please.”
Lawyer says, “what for”
Deputy says, “You didn’t come to a complete stop at the stop sign”
Lawyer says, “I slowed down , and no one was coming”
Deputy says, “ You still didn’t come to a complete..... License and registration, please!”
Lawyer says, “ If you can show me the legal difference between slow down and stop, I’ll give you my License and registration and you give me the ticket, if not, you let me go and don’t give me a ticket.”
Deputy says, “Sounds fair...Exit your Vehicle, sir” At this point, the deputy takes out his nightstick and starts beating the crap out of the lawyer and says, “Do you want me to stop or just slow down?”

Battle Cry!!!

“Still, if you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not so costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance for survival. There may be a worst case. You may have to fight when there is no chance of victory, because it is better to perish than to live as slaves.”

- Winston Churchill
